COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Explore the steps for planning and conduction quantity production for banquets and large functions. You'll learn how to scale recipes for large volume production, calculate yield, work brigade line as a pastry cook, and organize the preparation, storage, and delivery of volume production for pastry buffet tables and retail settings. You'll create products such as filled cakes, French Pastries, birthday cakes, special occasion cakes, individual plated desserts, and buffet desserts, as well as study basic sauces and plate design for banquet style desserts. Credit hours:3 Prerequisites: FSS 2056 Pastry Techniques with a C or above.

Course Objectives: At the end of the session the student will be able to begin to build the layouts of buffet presented Cakes, French Pastries, birthday and special occasion cakes, and individual plated desserts. They will be able to theorize the ingredients and techniques necessary in producing dessert sauces and use those sauces in plating desserts.

Evaluation and Course Grading

This course is divided into four major categories , which will comprise the final grade.

- Classroom attendance 25%
- Participation : 25% - grading scale at end of syllabi
- Project or Case studies: 20% - grading scale at end of syllabi
- Progress Tests/presentations: 10%
- Final Exam: 20%

Attendance:

Attendance will account for 25% of the course grade. Aside from being actively engaged in the course as described in the participation rubric, you will be graded on your attendance in the following manner:

- 0 absence =100% of the attendance grade or the letter grade of A
- 1 absence = 80% of the attendance grade or the letter grade of B
- 2 absences = 50% of the attendance grade or the letter grade of C
- 3 absences = 0% of the attendance grade or the letter grade of F and withdrawn from class

Two partial attendance counts as an absence. A partial attendance is defined as arriving tardy or leaving early. Participation is assessed under classroom engagement. There are no excused absences in the course. Students will normally be withdrawn for failing to attend the first class session unless otherwise communicated before the beginning of class. Students will normally be withdrawn or assigned an F for the course due to excessive absences, normally viewed as 3 total.

Portfolio Project, valued at 20% of your grade

3 recipes per week X 14 weeks equal 42 recipes

Criterion– The purpose of this project is to create the opportunity for you to show this work to a chef/owner in the industry that will see the kind of work you have done. An employer/chef wants to see perfectly executed dishes that follow organizational patterns that can be recreated for consistency. This of course is a reflection of guest expectations. The more work you have even the best work you have in an organized easy to follow portfolio will say a lot about how serious you are about working in the industry. This potentially may land you the job over other people, with experience, being interviewed for the same job.

The portfolio will consist of:

- a. A 3 ring binder portfolio with tabs 5%
The weekly menu – 10%
3 significant recipes listed on the weekly menu, and will include
 - 1. Color picture from class 10%
 - 2. The yield in servings 5%
 - 3. The cooking method 5%
 - 4. The ingredients 20%
 - 5. The volume of ingredients 10%
 - 6. Procedures of preparation 25%
- b. From time to time I will ask the student to show me their progress, I will assess a grade equal to a progress test score each time based on the week we are in equal to how many recipes have been done. 10%

Tests:

The written tests will count for 30% of the grade.

The progress tests and Essay assignments on pertinent topics that presentations will be made of, count for 10% of your final grade.

The final exam will count for 20% of your final grade. 10% written, 10% practical

CLASSROOM POLICIES:

Make-up Exams:

Make-up exams will be given only for emergency situations provided the instructor is notified in advance. Upon your absence and its approval, the exam will be placed in the testing center. Exams must be made up before the next class meeting. Any test missed will have adverse effect on your grade, and make-up test will not be given unless approved by the Professor prior to the date of schedule test. Final exam is required! A no show on that day will result in an F for the session.

GENERAL GRADING SCALE:

- A 90-100
- B 80- 89
- C 70- 79
- D 60- 69

F below 60

Homework and Quizzes:

Home-works and quizzes cannot be made up. If a student is absent, it is his/her responsibility to contact a class member, obtain the assignment and come to the next class meeting prepared. If a student is absent the day of a quiz, they will receive a zero. Late project and/or assignments will be penalized 5 points per day late.

Academic Honesty:

Academic integrity is expected at all times. Academic dishonesty (cheating) will be punished to the fullest extent allowed by the institution. The instructor will follow the academic dishonest policy as outlined in the student handbook and the catalog. It is your responsibility to familiarize yourself with this policy. However, in short, if a student is caught being academically dishonest, the student(s) involved will receive consequences that may include a zero grade for the assignment and a failing grade for the course.

Mobile communication devices – I understand there are many good reasons to have laptops, mobile phones and other wireless communication devices. Many of us have work and family responsibilities that sometimes cannot wait until the end of class. Recognizing that it may be necessary on occasion to communicate with others during class, please do not text, email, surf, talk, or anything else while class is in session.. Feel free to leave the classroom for a “moment” to take care of any necessary communications.

Student Assistance Program

Valencia College is interested in making sure all our students have a rewarding and successful college experience. To that purpose, Valencia students can get immediate help with issues dealing with stress, anxiety, depression, adjustment difficulties, substance abuse, time management as well as relationship problems dealing with school, home or work. BayCare Behavioral Health Student Assistance program (SAP) services are free to all Valencia students and available 24 hours a day by calling (800) 878-5470. Free face to face counseling is also available.

Withdrawal Policy

Students are only able to withdraw themselves up to the Withdrawal Deadline, After the Withdrawal Deadline; the instructor may withdraw students who are in violation of the course attendance policy up to the beginning of the final exam period.

Academic Accommodations

"Students with disabilities who qualify for academic accommodations must provide a letter from the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) and discuss specific needs with the professor, preferably during the first two weeks of class. The Office for Students with Disabilities determines accommodations based on appropriate documentation of disabilities. Concerning Allergies: Unless you have an allergy verified by a doctor the expectation is to taste all foods when in the kitchen. Please advise the instructor if for religious reasons you cannot eat certain foods. Absolutely no food is to leave the premises. No exceptions.

Disclaimer:The schedule, procedures, and assignments are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances. However, any such change will be clearly announced. Such changes are designed to deal with unforeseen circumstances that arise during the course. The changes will be intended to benefit the student and will not significantly add to the rigor of the course.

Expected Student Conduct

Valencia College is dedicated not only to the advancement of knowledge and learning but is concerned with the development of responsible personal and social conduct. By enrolling at Valencia College, a student assumes the responsibility for becoming familiar with and abiding by the general rules of conduct. The primary responsibility for managing the classroom environment rests with the faculty. Students who engage in any prohibited or unlawful acts that result in disruption of a classroom or Valencia's rules may lead to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from Valencia. Disciplinary action could include being withdrawn from class, disciplinary warning, probation, suspension, expulsion, or other appropriate and authorized actions. You will find the student code of conduct in the current Valencia student handbook

No one will be allowed to remove food from the classroom at any time, no exception
