Course Description

This course is designed to help EAP students comprehend and interpret authentic college-level texts. Lab work is a required component of this course. A departmental final exam is required. A minimum grade of C is required for successful completion of the course. College credit may apply. Prerequisite(s): Demonstration of required level of English proficiency OR minimum grade of “C” in EAP 01520C.

Learning Outcomes - EAP1620C students will:

- demonstrate comprehension of college reading materials – Use active reading strategies; identify and discuss main ideas, supporting details, and conclusions; recognize rhetorical/organization patterns used to structure texts and present information.
- demonstrate receptive and productive knowledge of academic vocabulary— use academic vocabulary; use context clues, word structure, collocation, connotation, and other vocabulary concepts to clarify meaning and improve comprehension.

- apply thinking and problem-solving strategies to college reading materials—Analyze, synthesize, and evaluate while reading - infer author’s purpose and tone; analyze an author’s argument (relevant and adequate facts/opinions vs. use of propaganda and logical fallacies); draw logical inferences; identify bias.
- act purposefully and effectively to apply the reading skills gained in this class to other college classes and to your life - Communicate with different audiences; read and discuss with classmates and others; share opinions and judgments based on evidence; employ academic vocabulary consistent with professional/academic settings.

Required textbook - Reading Explorer 5, 3rd Edition, with MyELT Online Workbook

Your book must be a printed textbook (not an e-book) and it must be new or not written in.

Use ONE of the options/links below to order:

- OPTION 1 – An EAP student used this Amazon Prime link to order her 1620 book/lab bundle and received her textbook the next day.

- OPTION 2 - Order the printed textbook/online lab bundle from the Valencia Bookstore ($68.56, free shipping). Use this option if you are using Financial Aid. Click https://valenciacollege.textbookx.com/help#/how\_to\_find\_book and type "EAP1620". Then click on the link with your professor's name. You can choose to have the book shipped for free to your home OR choose “VC Vault” if you want to pick the book up on any campus. In both cases, please watch your Valencia email for follow-up information from the Valencia Bookstore.

o CAUTION: The Valencia Bookstore will also show offers from the Marketplace at lower cost. I advise that you DON’T use those offers, as you may find yourself waiting weeks for a book to arrive from China.

- OPTION 3 - Order the printed textbook/online lab bundle directly from National Geographic Learning ($70.95 before discount, $53.21 with discount code “ELTNGL25”). You cannot use financial aid. <https://www.cengage.com/c/isbn/9780357124741/> . To use discount code: When checking out, enter discount code in the coupon code box, choose “Valencia College,” and use your Valencia email address. Doing that lets the publisher know which college is using this offer.

- OPTION 4 - If you have a book already (unwritten in) and need only the MyELT

Online Workbook instant access code: Go to <https://www.cengage.com/c/isbn/9780357125427/> to purchase an instant access code ($26.95). *Note: The discount code does not apply when purchasing only an online access code.

Other required materials:

- 8.5 x 11 notebook paper, pen, pencil, whiteout, highlighters for note-taking
- Microsoft Office - Some of the study resources in this class are MS Word documents and you will be required to turn in some typed assignments. Valencia College offers Microsoft Office (which includes Microsoft Word and PowerPoint) for free to all students.
  - o Click here to learn how to download the MS Office software through Valencia/Atlas. Important Note: Some of the MS Office features are not available if you only use Office 365 in the Cloud without downloading it.
- Laptop computer and printer access - You will complete some learning activities, assignments, and tests in Canvas during class time and outside of class. Please bring your laptop computer to class. If you don't have a laptop computer, please let your professor know and laptops will be provided on test days. You will need to print out and turn in some assignments; you may also find it helpful to print the study handouts and resources posted in Canvas modules.
- Dictionary - Any electronic or paper English-English or bilingual/translation dictionary.

Valencia and Course Policies

Course Attendance - Late/Makeup Work - Final Exam policies:

- Attendance/Participation: Regular attendance and regular class participation (in both the face-to-face and online components of the course) are significant factors that will promote success in this class. Absences will reduce your course grade. If you do not attend class and/or do not submit coursework for a period of 8 consecutive days, you will be contacted, and if there is no communication from you within 48 hours, you will be withdrawn by the professor.

- Course Late/Makeup Work Policy: Please strive to submit your work on time. However, if something unexpected happens and you are unable to submit an assignment on time, you may complete assignments (but NOT tests) late. When assignments are submitted late, the Canvas Gradebook will automatically deduct points for those late assignments (-10% per day or partial day late).

- Departmental EAP final exams are required and comprise 10% of the final grade.

They must be taken during the assigned final exam timeframe(s). The final exam(s) will not be offered earlier or later to any student unless a student has documented proof of a medical or life emergency; the medical documentation must be submitted to the instructor by email or Canvas notification within 24 hours of the student's medical release. Please plan your semester accordingly and check the date(s) of the final exam(s) stated either in the syllabus and/or calendar.

Valencia No Show Policy:

- If you do not attend the class during the first week and do not notify me, you will be withdrawn from the class as a "no show." You will be financially responsible for the class and a final grade of "WN" will appear on your transcript for the course.

Valencia Withdrawal Policy:

- Before withdrawing from a course, refer to the Valencia Withdrawal Policy and talk with your professor to discuss your progress in the course, and speak with an Academic Advisor to discuss how a withdrawal will affect your career and education plans and/or the status of your financial aid. You should be aware that course withdrawals
  - o will increase the cost of your education.
  - o may affect your financial aid status and may require repayment of federal financial aid.
  - o may affect your transfer grade point average.
  - o may result in your having to pay the full cost of instruction fee to retake the course.
  - o may affect your anticipated graduation date.
  - o may result in your being denied access to limited access programs.

- o may affect your eligibility for the Honors Program.
- o may affect your immigration status if you are attending Valencia on a nonimmigrant visa.
- o will result in your required repayment of course fees paid by a Bright Futures scholarship.

Valencia Student Conduct Policy:

• Valencia is dedicated not only to the advancement of knowledge and learning but also to the development of responsible personal and social conduct. As a registered student, you assume the responsibility for conducting yourself in a manner that contributes positively to Valencia's learning community and that does not impair, interfere with, or obstruct the orderly conduct, processes, and functions of the college as described in the Student Code of Conduct.

Valencia Academic Integrity Policy (revised 2024):

All forms of academic dishonesty are prohibited at Valencia College, as outlined in the Academic Integrity Policy. Violations of the Academic Integrity policy include the following:

- Plagiarism: A form of intellectual theft in which a student presents work done by others – in writing or orally – as their own work. All of the following are considered plagiarism:
  - o using AI on any part of an assignment, unless authorized by the professor
  - o turning in someone else's work as your own
  - o copying words or ideas from someone else without giving credit
  - o failing to put a quotation in quotation marks
  - o giving incorrect information about the source of a quotation
  - o changing words but copying the sentence structure of a source without giving credit
  - o copying so many words or ideas from a source that it makes up the majority of your work, whether you give credit or not
- Cheating (including the unauthorized use of AI): A form of dishonesty in which a student misrepresents their mastery of the course content or clinical experience. Cheating applies to examinations, labs, assignments, presentations, clinical experiences, online discussions, and any other form of learning assessment.

- Misrepresentation of Academic Experiences, Ability, or Effort: Providing false or misleading information concerning academic background or academic work.
- Unauthorized Access: Unauthorized access refers to acquiring or forcing unauthorized access to property, information, academic resources (including exams and other assessment materials), or other materials that belong to another student, faculty member/instructor, or department.

The Faculty member maintains the academic prerogative to apply academic penalties deemed appropriate following any interaction with the student on the matter, in accordance with Policy 6Hx28:8-11. These penalties may range from a zero on the assignment to ultimately an F in the course.

International Student Policy:

- It is the responsibility of international students (not their instructors) to maintain their immigration status. Contact Valencia's International Student Services office to ensure that you understand your responsibilities as an International Student.
- International students must be enrolled in and complete a minimum of 12 credit hours during the fall and spring semesters. A grade (A, B, C, D, or F) must be earned in each of the 12 credit hours and does not include withdrawals (W).
- Withdrawal from any course may result in the termination of your visa status if you fall below the full-time enrollment requirement of 12 credit hours.

HB233/Recording Policy:

- Students may record video and/or audio of class lectures for personal use to support your learning and provide a resource for review. To be respectful of your peers' rights to privacy, you may not record your peers during lectures, class discussions, student presentations, labs, group work, or private conversations. Further, you may not publish or share recordings without your instructor's written consent, nor may you provide recordings to classmates as a substitution for class participation and attendance.

HB7/Diverse Viewpoints Policy:

- Your peers and instructor hold diverse ideas and viewpoints. Our viewpoints may agree or disagree, but we will always be respectful of other opinions as provided by the law and as expected in an academic environment. No lesson is intended to espouse, promote, advance, inculcate, compel a particular feeling, perception, viewpoint, or belief in a concept.

Concepts as presented are not endorsed by the instructor but are presented as part of the larger course of instruction. Should a student feel uncomfortable with how course content is presented or discussed, please contact the instructor for further conversation.

Copyright Policy:

- To avoid copyright infringement, any materials produced specifically for this class can only be used during this term for this class.

Student Privacy/FERPA Policy:

- Valencia College is committed to privacy rights in accordance with state and federal laws pertaining to student privacy, as well as College policies and procedures that have been implemented to help guarantee student privacy.

Student Special Needs

Students with Disabilities and Special Needs

Students with disabilities who qualify for academic accommodations must provide their professors with a letter from the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD)

- Osceola Campus 2-102, tel 407-582-4167
- OSD will determine reasonable and appropriate accommodations based on your specific need. This may include assistance with classroom accommodations, adaptive equipment, training with assistive technology, and referrals to campus and community services to provide you with additional help.

- You may request services at any time; however, we encourage you to request accommodations as early as possible in order for services to be available on the first day of your classes.

Free, Confidential Counseling and Support

- We all sometimes need help to deal with challenging situations at school, home, or work.

Valencia has many mental health awareness resources to assist you.

- In addition to Valencia Counselors, BayCare Behavioral Health is a service that Valencia College contracts with to provide local mental health services to students needing support for stress, suicidal ideation, anxiety, anger, sexual/gender identity, depression, unhealthy relationships, self esteem, substance abuse, grief/loss, and adjustment difficulties. Call (800) 878-5470. BayCare's information is available on the back of the Valencia Student I.D. cards.

Syllabus Disclaimer

Having read and gone over this syllabus and by remaining enrolled in the course, you are entering into a contract to complete the course requirements and respect classroom policies. The above information, as well as the course schedule, is subject to written or verbal change at the discretion of the professor.
