GRADING POLICY:

SPECIAL NOTE: This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor at any time.

Each category of the overall course grade is described below (with the percentage of grade).

Discussions - 20%

- ☐ Discussions allow you to discuss the course learning activities with your peers and professor. Discussions are worth 20% and are evaluated using varied rubrics.

High-Stakes Assignments - 40%

- ☐ High-stakes assignments make up most of your grades in the course, so you will certainly want to complete these in a timely manner. These are considered summative assignments.
- ☐ These assignments cover the main topical areas of the course, such as career and academic research, educational planning, and personal purpose.

Reading Comprehension Quizzes - 5%

- ☐ Online quizzes check for understanding of the learning activities within each module, so completing them is essential to measure your learning. Quizzes range in points depending on the topic and length. You are given two chances.

Low-Stakes Assignments 15%

- ☐ There are various low stake assignments throughout the course that are intended to help you break down larger course concepts. They do not make up a large percentage of your course grade.

Final Exam 20%

- ☐ You have a final, cumulative project focused on creatively presenting your academic and career story. This will demonstrate your ability to verbally communicate your story by tying in many important course elements.
- ☐ The project is worth 20% of your overall course grade.
- ☐ This project will serve as the final exam in the course.

ASSIGNMENT DIRECTIONS & SUBMISSIONS:

SPECIAL NOTE: This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor at any time.

- ❑ All assignment directions and submissions are located inside Canvas.
- ❑ Most assignments will be due by Sunday at 11:59 PM of the corresponding week. The only exception to this rule is initial posts for discussion prompts (on applicable weeks), due by Thursday at 11:59 PM.
- ❑ The course's final week may also differ from the typical Sunday due date. Be sure to review the course calendar.

LATE WORK POLICY:

- ❑ Late work is not accepted.
- ❑ My policy is that students turn in their work either early or on time, as you would if this were your place of employment. Due dates are listed for all assignments and can be found on the last two pages of the printed version of the syllabus at the top of this page.
- ❑ Make-up work will only be accepted with documentation of an emergency (illness, jury duty, etc.) and is at the instructor's discretion. Failure to remember an assignment is not an excusable reason for make-up work.
- ❑ Make-up assignments are not permitted without the explicit consent of the instructor.
- ❑ Assignments will automatically lock after the due date, preventing you from submitting them late.
- ❑ Additionally, I know that, at times, WI-FI or technology issues can happen. However, if these occur on the day an assignment is due, this constitutes poor planning on your part. Remember that you have at least four to seven days to complete an assignment. Do not wait until the day an assignment is due to begin working on it.

ONLINE ATTENDANCE & PARTICIPATION:

- ❑ Attendance and participation are required components of this online course.
- ❑ Attendance and participation in this class consist of submitting assignments/discussions by the designated due dates for a given week.
- ❑ Failure to submit assignments/discussions (if applicable) for each given week will count as one absence (does not apply to the first week of class; see the "No Show" policy above).
- ❑ Students who accrue three or more absences may be subjected to a one-letter grade reduction from their overall grade as a final grade in the class.
- ❑ Please refer to Valencia College's Academic Progress, Course Attendance and Grades, and Withdrawal.
- ❑ If you cannot participate in the course due to illness, family emergency, etc., please communicate with me as soon as possible to plan the best course of action. In the case of a prolonged online absence of one week or more, continuation in the course will be determined on a case-by-case basis through discussion between you and the professor.

SPECIAL NOTE: This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor at any time.

STUDENT CONDUCT POLICY:

- ❑ Valencia is dedicated not only to the advancement of knowledge and learning but also to the development of responsible personal and social conduct.
- ❑ As a registered student, you assume the responsibility for conducting yourself in a manner that contributes positively to Valencia's learning community and does not impair, interfere with, or obstruct the orderly conduct, processes, and functions of the college as described in the Student Code of Conduct.
- ❑ The primary responsibility for managing the online classroom environment rests with the professor. Students who engage in prohibited or unlawful acts that disrupt the normal class flow or in the harassment of others may lead to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from the college.
- ❑ Disciplinary actions could include being withdrawn from the class, disciplinary warning, probation, suspension, expulsion, or other appropriate and authorized actions.
- ❑ Valencia's Student Code of Classroom Conduct (Policy 08-03, section IV) can be found in the current New Student Experience Handbook.
- ❑ Students may record video and/or audio of class lectures for their personal use. Recordings may be useful to support your learning and provide a resource for review. It is important to be respectful of your peers' rights to privacy; with that in mind, please refrain from recording your peers during lectures. You may not record class discussions, student presentations, labs, group work, and private conversations. Further, you may not publish or share recordings without my written consent nor provide recordings to classmates as a substitute for class participation and attendance. If necessary, I will handle violations of this section through the College's Student Code of Conduct.

VALENCIA'S ACADEMIC DISHONESTY POLICY:

- ❑ All forms of academic dishonesty are prohibited at Valencia College. Academic dishonesty includes but is not limited to, acts or attempted acts of plagiarism, cheating, furnishing false information, forgery, alteration or misuse of documents, misconduct during a testing situation, facilitating academic dishonesty, and abuse of identification with intent to defraud or deceive.
- ❑ All work submitted by students is expected to result from the student's thoughts, research, and self-expression. Whenever a student uses ideas, wording, or organization from another source, the source shall be appropriately acknowledged. If a student is caught submitting plagiarized work, a first offense will result in a zero score on the assignment. A second offense will result in a class grade of F.
- ❑ Please refer to Valencia College's Academic Dishonesty policy.

SPECIAL NOTE: This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor at any time.

TITLE IX: DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, AND RELATED MISCONDUCT:

Notice of Non-Discrimination Based on Protected Status

- It is the policy of the District Board of Trustees to provide equal opportunity for employment and educational opportunities to all applicants for employment, employees, applicants for admission, students, and others affiliated with the College, without regard to race, ethnicity, color, national origin, age, religion, disability, marital status, sex/gender, genetic information, sexual orientation, gender identity, pregnancy, and any other factor protected under applicable federal, state, and local civil rights laws, rules and regulations (collectively referred to as “Protected Status”).
- In addition, Valencia College (“Valencia” or “College”) strives to be a community in which all members can learn and work in an atmosphere free from all forms of Harassment, including Sexual Harassment, discrimination, intimidation, and/or retaliation. This Policy prohibits all forms of Discrimination and Harassment based on Protected Status. It expressly, therefore, also prohibits Sexual Assault and Sexual Exploitation, which involve conduct of a sexual nature and are prohibited forms of Sexual or Gender-Based Harassment. This Policy further prohibits Stalking and Interpersonal Violence, which need not be based on an individual's Protected Status. Finally, this Policy prohibits Complicity for knowingly assisting in an act that violates this Policy and Retaliation against an individual because of his or her good faith participation in the reporting, investigation, and/or adjudication of violations of this Policy. These behaviors are collectively referred to in this Policy as Prohibited Conduct.

SPECIAL NOTE: This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor at any time.

- All College community members are responsible for conducting themselves in accordance with this Policy and other College policies and procedures. Valencia students and employees who violate this Policy may face discipline up to and including expulsion or termination.
- The College's protection of these statuses is grounded in federal, state, and local laws. The College encourages all community members to take reasonable and prudent actions to prevent or stop Prohibited Conduct. Acting may include direct intervention when safe to do so, seeking assistance from a person in authority at the College, enlisting the assistance of friends, contacting law enforcement, or contacting Campus Safety and Security. Members of the College community who exercise this positive responsibility will be supported by the College and protected from Retaliation.
- The College must make reasonable efforts to investigate and address known or suspected instances of Prohibited Conduct. To foster a climate that encourages prevention and reporting of Prohibited Conduct, the College will actively promote prevention efforts, educate the College community, respond to all reports promptly, provide Interim Protective Measures to address safety and emotional well-being, and act in a manner that recognizes the inherent dignity of the individuals involved.

Sexual or Gender-Based Harassment, Sexual Assault, Sexual Exploitation, Interpersonal Violence, and Stalking

- Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 states that: No person in the United States shall, based on sex, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance.
- Sexual or Gender-Based Harassment, Sexual Assault, Sexual Exploitation, and Retaliation, as defined in this Policy, are prohibited forms of discrimination under Title IX, which covers all College programs and activities. Like racial, religious, and national origin Harassment, Sexual or Gender-Based Harassment and Sexual Violence are also prohibited under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 760 et al., F.S., and other applicable laws.
- The College's prohibition against Interpersonal Violence (including domestic and dating violence) and Stalking is also governed by federal law because these forms of behavior are prohibited by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security and Campus Crime Statistics Act, 20 U.S.C. § 1092(f) (the Clery Act) and Section 304 of the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013. Such acts violate the essential dignity of our community member(s) and are contrary to our institutional values.

SPECIAL NOTE: This syllabus is subject to change at the discretion of the instructor at any time.

- The College, as an educational community, will promptly and equitably respond to reports of Sexual Assault, Interpersonal Violence, and Stalking to eliminate the Harassment, prevent its recurrence, and address its effects on any individual or the community. The College recognizes that Sexual Assault, Interpersonal Violence, and Stalking encompass a broad spectrum of conduct and will respond according to the offense's severity and the threat it poses to the campus community.
- For more information on Title IX and Valencia, refer to the College's website \(Link\).
