NAVIGATING THIS ONLINE COURSE:

On the left column you will see tabs such as “Home”, “Syllabus”, “Announcements”, “Discussion”, “Grades”, and so forth.

- Click on the tab “Home” tab and scroll down to the “Canvas Help” icon to access the information you need to get started.
- Under “Modules”, is where you will find the assignments for each week.

The week runs from Monday at 12:00 am through Sunday at 11:59 pm Eastern Standard Time (EST). It is your responsibility to complete all assignments (required unit reading, unit review questions and exams) when they are available for you to complete and submit before 11:59 pm on Sunday to receive credit.

For the Discussion Questions, you are to completely answer the questions, and post your initial response by Thursday 11:59pm of the week the discussion is due. This is to allow your fellow learners adequate time to comment on your work before the Sunday 11:59 pm deadline.

Important Note: Please understand that in order to receive full credit for discussion posts, you must respond substantively to a minimum of two of your fellow learners’ posts. What do I mean by substantively? I am glad you asked! To reply to a fellow learner merely “I like your post” is not substantive. Rather, a substantive response could be, “Your discussion of the legal description as an important determinant in setting the property’s price was very interesting. Although the address is necessary to locate the property, it is not sufficient to identify the property. Indeed, addresses are often renamed over time and even physical boundaries can change course, such as that of a local creek.”

EVALUATION:

- Unit Review Questions – 15% of the course grade: There will be 10 sets of review questions in the course.
- Discussion Postings – 30% of the course grade: There will be 10 Discussion Question postings in the course. An acceptable posting constitutes detailed answers/responses to the discussion questions plus substantive responses to a minimum of two (feel free to respond to more!) of your fellow learners’ posts.

- End of Unit Exams – 25% of the course grade: There will be 5 exams in the course.
- Comprehensive Final – 30% of the course grade: The comprehensive final will consist of a 50-question exam covering the entirety of the course.

Florida Real Estate Commission (FREC) Exam

While the state licensure exam is not a part of the evaluation of this course and the results will not make up part of the course grade, many students who have also completed REE 1000 Real Estate Principles and Practices, elect to take the state exam to attempt to obtain a Florida Real Estate license. This exam is not part of the intended course outcomes and there is no guarantee what so ever that the student will have the ability to pass the exam.

No guarantee is made regarding any student's ability to pass the Florida Real Estate Commission (FREC) state exam. However, if a student decides he/she wants to take the state licensing exam, the student will be required to take the 100-question combined end-of-course exam and pass it with a grade of 70 or better.
