

MUSIC: THE ART OF SOUND

- What form does the musical work take?

concerto
sonata
aria

symphony
Mass
prelude

- What instruments or voices are employed?

strings
brass
symphony

soprano
tenor
chorus

- What are the music's formal and aesthetic qualities?

key
tempo
timbre

melody
rhythm
dynamics

- Who is the composer?

- What does this work tell us about the composer's life and work?

- In a musical performance, what musical works are part of the program? What is notable about each?

- What soloists played or sang in each work?

- What was the audience response?

- How can this musical work be related to another work of art?

- What is my personal response to or interpretation of this work?

DANCE: THE ART OF MOVEMENT

- What type is the dance?

ballet

modern dance

- What is the subject or story of the dance?

- What dancers are employed? How many perform the dance?

- What is the dance's formal and aesthetic qualities?

movement
line
costume

props
interaction of dancers

- What music accompanies the dance? How are music and dance related?

- Who is the choreographer?

- In a dance performance, what dance works are part of the program? What is notable about each?

- What lead dancers or pairs performed in each work?

- What was the audience response?

- How can this dance work be related to another work of art?

- What is my personal response to or interpretation of this work?