COURSE FORMAT & METHOD OF INSTRUCTION: IN PERSON.

Please attend class on a regular basis. I expect you to participate when called upon in class. This is college, I expect college level thinking and material to be produced. Excessive absences can and may result in loss of credit.

For any online assignments, you must have a good internet connection and the ability to respond via Canvas submission. Follow the assignments, pages, & modules that are found on Canvas for weekly online material. I will give you from typically Sunday to Friday to complete material. For Discussions, this is your chance to “shine” and tell us ALL why you’re awesome, this is the place to impress us all.

CHARACTERISTICS OF A GOOD DISCUSSION POSTING: Please reply to the prompt and then to (2) two other classmates. Full credit is rewarded only for following these steps. If you’re confused, please email and ask. Thus, a discussion contains three (3) actions on your part.

- Knowledgeable: Reflects your knowledge of the assigned readings and presentations
- Thought-provoking: Stimulates thinking and contributes to the depth of the discussion by adding new information, insight or posing a relevant question.
- Timely: Posted so that your peers have time to respond; this contributes to a rich discussion
- Professional: Clear, precise, and grammatically correct.

- Conveys "your presence": It reinforces your opinions with evidence from your experience that augments the readings and presentations

Please note that you have until Friday or date specified of the current week to post your replies, don't delay.

College Level Writing: All homework and papers must demonstrate "college level writing" for completion of this course. This link to the Humanities homepage explains college level writing and gives samples of what is and what is NOT college level writing. It also links you to tips to help you with your writing and places to go if you need additional assistance, including our on campus communication center.

<http://valenciacollege.edu/west/arts-and-humanities/writing/>

For a student to meet the criteria for college level writing in Humanities, and achieve a grade of C or better, they must be able to demonstrate the following skills through multiple writing assignments:

1. Evaluate appropriate primary sources (visual arts, architecture, performing arts, literature, religious texts, philosophy, and music) and make original observations, about those sources.
2. Demonstrate an awareness of the connection between the primary sources, the historical period, and cultural movements occurring at the time the sources were produced.
3. Formulate an argument that uses primary sources as evidence to defend a central thesis statement.
4. Employ grammar, spelling, punctuation, writing mechanics, and format appropriate for a college student preparing for real world situations in a continuing academic or professional environment.

I WILL NOT ACCEPT LATE WORK DUE TO A COMPUTER MALFUNCTION!!!! The only tool I have to ensure the work handed into me as legitimate is the timer and submission deadlines. I have no way of knowing if your computer malfunction is a legitimate excuse and must set the same standard for everyone. That is one of the downfalls of taking a class in an online environment. If you are experiencing technical difficulties (anything from a document not loading properly to issues logging in) with Canvas please contact the help desk by calling (407) 582-5600 (available 24/7)

Podcast Project: (Due March 15th, 2024) Podcast Assignment for Introduction to Humanities
Instructions in detail found on Canvas.

2. Read this article <http://www.theatlantic.com/politics/archive/2015/07/what-every-americanshould-know/397334/>

What is cultural literacy? “To be culturally literate is to possess the basic information needed to thrive in the modern world. The breadth of that information is great, extending over the major domains of human activity from sports to science.” –E.D. Hirsch, Jr.

From the Wes Anderson film Rushmore: “You guys have it real easy. I never had it like this where I grew up. But I send my kids here because the fact is you go to one of the best schools in the country: Rushmore. Now, for some of you it doesn't matter. You were born rich and you're going to stay rich. But here's my advice to the rest of you: Take dead aim on the rich boys. Get them in the crosshairs and take them down. Just remember, they can buy anything but they can't buy backbone. Don't let them forget it. Thank you.”—Herman J. Blume (played by Bill Murray 1998)

Podcast Assignment for Introduction to Humanities Instructions:

1. Sign up for an account on the app or online here www.anchor.fm or www.spreaker.com
2. Read this article <http://www.theatlantic.com/politics/archive/2015/07/what-every-american-should-know/397334/>
3. Choose 5 words. Record EACH one at roughly a 2 minute duration (entire project will be 10 minutes long. You can go longer if you want, but are not required.)
4. Write them down and practice what you might say about these words. The goal here is for cultural literacy.
5. After you've recorded and you feel good about your words, it's time to email me your list and your link. The email should state the following:

Via the Canvas link: submit just your link to your podcast: <https://spotifyanchor-web.app.link/e/RSL1qnFtnsb> These examples are longer examples that you will NOT have to do, I just want 10 minutes and 5 words. (In the past I created this assignment through “Spreaker.com” and if you find this platform easier or better, you can submit using this as well. Here is also my example: <http://www.spreaker.com/user/8151929>)

How long should your recording be? Roughly 10 minutes long (plus/minus 10-15 seconds) is standard. You can record as long as you'd like, but must meet this minimum. Remember it is 5 of your OWN words at 2 minutes each = 10 min show total. Repeat, not 2 minutes total, not 5 minutes total... 5x2=10 the last time I checked 😊

What do I say in this recording? Start by stating what the word is. Next, in your own words, tell me what this means; imagine I've never heard this word before. Fill the definition with possible anecdotes (examples/stories) of how this word works and can be useful or really have cultural value in the 21st Century.

Tips to remember: Relax, re-record if you hate what you said, delete it and record again, no one will know but you. Don't read the definition, pretend you're speaking to someone—me 😊 and use everyday words to describe. Your words should not all be “slang” but your words should be a mirror for a new America as it was stated in the Atlantic article above. It should be broad enough to let all in: “It's about raising the collective knowledge of all—and recognizing that the wealthy, white, and powerful also have blind spots and swaths of ignorance so broad as to keep them dangerously isolated from their countrymen.” –Eric Liu

CULTURAL EXPERIENCE/PREZI PRESENTATION or PowerPoint (Due, April 5th, 2024)

You are required to interact with the world around you—even outside of this class (yes, it’s true).

Option #1 First choice, you will have an option of visiting a religious institution that is not your own (i.e. if you are Christian, go to a Jewish temple or a religion that is not your own. If you’re not a religious person at all, then any place of worship will do.) This event is free and should not cost anything unless you wish to contribute to the faith of your choosing.

Option #2 is to try an ethnic cuisine that is foreign to your palate and is a large stretch for you (if you are Puerto Rican, just going to Tijuana Flats will not do as there are real similarities in the type/style of food). Go to eat at a Korean, Ethiopian, Indian, Moroccan, Jamaican, etc. place. This is chance to try that restaurant you’ve always dreamed of.

Option #3 is to visit an art museum or art event during the semester (No, that beer festival does NOT count). Note some museums may charge a fee for entrance but many are free of charge. This will culminate in a “Prezi” on your topic sent to me for review. I will give out a rubric on the presentation before these are due and details on expectations. The Prezi will be emailed to me and for authentication, you MUST take a “selfie” or picture that documents your actual presence during your cultural experience.

JUST BE YOU:

Students shall take special notice that the assignment of course grades is the responsibility of the student’s individual professor. When the professor has reason to believe that an act of academic dishonesty has occurred, and before sanctions are imposed, the student shall be given informal notice and an opportunity to be heard by the professor. Any student determined by the professor to have been guilty of engaging in an act of academic dishonesty shall be liable to a range of academic penalties as determined by the professor which may include, but not be limited to, one or more of the following: loss of credit for an assignment, examination or project; a reduction in the course grade; or a grade of “F” in the course. At the option of the professor, the campus provost may be furnished with written notification of the occurrence and the action taken. If such written notice is given, a copy shall be provided to the student. Students guilty of engaging in a gross or flagrant act of academic dishonesty or repeated instances of academic dishonesty shall also be subject to administrative and/or disciplinary penalties which may include warning, probation, suspension and/or expulsion from the college.

BOTTOM LINE: Be you, be original. If you stand on the shoulders of giants, give them credit or risk being eaten by them--you’ve been warned.

ATTENDANCE POLICY & NO SHOW PROCEDURES:

Please respond by the end of the first week or risk being dropped.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY:

Per Valencia Policy 4-07 (Academic Progress, Course Attendance and Grades, and Withdrawals), a student who withdraws from class before the established deadline for a particular term will receive a grade of "W".

The professor will not withdraw any student for any reason; it is the responsibility of the student to withdraw themselves before the withdrawal deadline and to be aware of the date of the withdrawal deadline.

A student may withdraw at any time during the term in Atlas before the withdrawal date. The New Withdrawal Policy has been implemented. Here's what you need to know about the new Withdrawal Policy:

- Students may withdraw themselves for a W up until the withdrawal deadline (Spring 2024, March 15th 2024).
- After the withdrawal deadline each semester, students can no longer withdraw themselves.
- WP and WF have been deleted from Withdrawal procedures.
- Before the withdrawal deadline, both a student and faculty may withdraw the student.
- After the withdrawal deadline, a student cannot withdraw him-/herself.

Procedure Effective Date: 05/15/2007 Procedure Statement: Students must complete the Refund Request or Waiver of Debt Form that is available in Atlas and include appropriate documentation as described on the form. The Refund Request Form or Waiver of Debt must be submitted no later than the end of the term in which the refund is requested. A. The Admissions and Records Office will review the Refund Request or Waiver of Debt Form and supporting documentation to make a determination on its approval. B. If a refund is granted, the registration status for the courses approved will be changed to "AR" which generates the refund to the student. This status will appear on the student's academic transcript next to the course. C. If the refund is not granted, the student will receive a letter indicating the reason for denial of the appeal. Students who have questions about the refund process should contact the Admissions and Records Administrative Assistant who will refer to the Assistant Director of Admissions as needed. D. Procedure History Adopted 5-15-07; Formerly 6Hx28:06-14

In order to academically maintain financial aid, students must meet all of the following requirements:

- Complete 67% of all classes attempted, and
- Maintain a Valencia GPA of 2.0 or higher, and

- Maintain an overall GPA of 2.0 or higher, and
- Complete degree within the 150% timeframe

Detailed information about maintaining satisfactory academic progress (SAP) can be found at:

http://valenciacollege.edu/finaid/satisfactory_progress.cfm

- For a complete policy and procedure overview on Valencia Policy 4-07 please go to: http://valenciacollege.edu/generalcounsel/policy/default.cfm?policyID=75&volumeID_1=4&navst=0

Excessive absences/ Lateness of fifteen minutes or early departure will count as a miss hour. A professor can withdraw you from a course for excessive absences without your permission. (2002-03 College Catalog p.62) Do not leave early without informing me. This is disruptive and rude. Student behavior or speech that disrupts the instructional setting or is clearly disrespectful of the instructor or fellow students will not be tolerated. Disruptive conduct may include but is not limited:

- . Rude or disrespectful behavior;
- . Unwarranted interruptions;
- . Failure to adhere to instructor's directions;
- . Vulgar or obscene language, slurs, or other forms of intimidation;
- . Physically or verbally abusive behavior.

Student's behavior that is inappropriate will result in disenrollment from the course.

If a student knows he/she is not passing the course but fails to withdraw by the designated date and then decides to stop coming to class, you should know the professor will not withdraw you from the course and the grade of F will be assigned.

International Students on Withdrawal Policy:

- Faculty members at Valencia College have the authority to withdraw students from courses for missing classes and violating the attendance policy.
- Withdrawing an international student may result in the termination of that student's immigration status.
- International students must maintain enrollment in at least 12 credit hours during the fall and spring terms with a minimum of 9 credits of face-to-face or mixed-mode courses. Due to Covid-19, international students will be permitted to take an increased number of online courses for a limited period as authorized by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security.

Below is a video that provides further information regarding the withdrawal policy.

SECURITY STATEMENT:

We want to reassure you that our security officers are here around the clock to ensure the safety and security of the campus community. It's important to remain alert and aware of your surroundings, especially during the early morning or evening hours. Remember that you can always call security for an escort if you feel uncomfortable walking alone on campus. White security phones can also be found in many of our buildings; simply pick up the phone and security will answer.

Finally, report any suspicious persons to West Campus Security at 407-582-1000, 407-582-1030 (after-hours number) or by using the yellow emergency call boxes located on light poles in the parking lots and along walkways.

*Note: (For Face to Face courses) I will be locking my classroom door during class and ask that you refrain from leaving unless it is an emergency. In light of so much random violence in our public spaces, this is one safety precaution I will be taking. If you see something, say something.

MAKE-UP POLICY:

Exams and Final Exam cannot be made up. NO LATE ASSIGNMENTS WILL BE ACCEPTED.

I will deal with personal issues on a case to case basis. Please provide documentation for all life changing events. I will work with you if you have conflicts—I won't work with lies and sloth. You are an adult with responsibilities, own up to them. The current tires last some 60,000 miles on average—yours are not flat...that often. Again, think like a Buddhist and "Be here, be here now."

CLASS PARTICIPATION:

Participation in class involves a number of variables, including but not limited to:

- Your willingness to participate actively in all class activities.
- Your cooperation during group and pair work.
- Your respect and attitude toward the class and your peers.
- Your daily preparation for each class.
- Your instructor may assign written homework that will be collected and graded; these assignments form part of your participation grade

Participation does not mean interrupting the class, leaving the room and coming back, and/or just asking questions.

CLASS PARTICIPATION GRADING:

A (90-100) Student prepares for the lesson, volunteers answers, correctly.

B (89-80) Student responds when called upon; answers are generally correct.

C (79-70) Student has some problems with the subject, but makes an effort to be prepared, understand, and respond.

D (69-60) Student does not respond correctly, is not prepared for class, does not have materials ready, and is absent frequently.

F (59-0) Student can't answer questions, does other things not concerning class, and is absent most of the time.

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Student Conduct and Academic Honesty:

Each student is required to follow Valencia policy regarding academic honesty. All work submitted by students is expected to be the result of the student's individual thoughts, research, and self-expression unless the assignment specifically states "group project." Any act of academic dishonesty will be handled in accordance with Valencia policy as set forth in the Student Handbook and Catalog.

VCC Expected student conduct: 10-03 Student Code of Conduct

Specific Authority: 1006.60, FS.Law Implemented: 1006.60, FS.

Valencia College is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge and learning, and to the development of responsible personal and social conduct. By enrolling at Valencia, a student assumes the responsibility for knowing and abiding by the rules of appropriate behavior as articulated in the Student Code of Conduct. The primary responsibility for managing the classroom environment rests with the faculty. Faculty may direct students who engage in inappropriate behavior that results in disruption of a class to leave the class. Such students may be subject to other disciplinary action which may include a warning, withdrawal from class, probation, suspension, or expulsion from the college. Please read the Student Code of Conduct in the current Valencia Student Handbook.

Here is the link to Valencia's Student Code of Conduct website:

<http://www.valenciacollege.edu/policies/policydetail2.cfm?PolicyCatID=10&PolicyID=3>

Exams and homework are considered individual effort; any submissions that are too similar for coincidence will receive no credit.

Students may collaborate in group assignments. Collaboration should be used to edit or to clarify doubts. If anyone is involved in incidents of cheating a zero will be given. Each student is expected to be in complete compliance with the college policy on Academic Honesty as set forth in the admissions catalog and the student handbook. Any student(s) cheating on an exam will receive a zero on the exam. This cannot be replaced with the final score and the professor at his/her discretion can withdraw you from the class.

Students are responsible for preparing for class by reading pre-assigned readings and completing assignments.

Students who are absent are fully responsible for all material covered in class. Leaving a message on my phone or sending an e-mail will not be an excused absence. Make sure you can contact your classmates too. Students should bring the textbook and any other material required for class.

During exams and quizzes, students may not leave the room.

The instructor's office extension is 1404. Messages should consist of your name, your class and class time, and a brief message. Questions such as "What did we cover in class?" will not result in a response. Due to the problem of "phone tag", student phone calls will normally not be returned. Emails with specific questions will be answered as soon as possible, usually within 24 hours (during week days). Students who need more than a brief response should arrange a meeting with the instructor.

Wandering in and out of the classroom without prior permission is unacceptable and you could lose participation points for doing so. Doing such things will affect your grade. Also, improper conduct like interrupting too much, talking with peers, been disrespectful to professor and peers will affect your grade. Joking and having small conversations while the professor or peers are talking are considered disruptive behavior and it will not be tolerated.

Office of Students with Disabilities:

Students who qualify for academic accommodations must provide a letter from the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) and discuss specific needs with the professor, preferably during the first week of class. The Office for Students with Disabilities (West-SSB 102) determines accommodations based on appropriate documentation of disabilities.

The goal at the OSD is to open doors, remove barriers and assist you in any way they can. The key to success is matching your needs to the services provided. Please contact this office to discuss your individual needs.

Florida House Bill 233.

As your professor, I'm committed to giving you as many opportunities and resources to support your learning as possible. Therefore, you may find it beneficial to record class lectures to review later. Please keep in mind that you do not have your peers' permission to record them, and they have a right to privacy; your peers should not be in your recordings. You may not record class discussions, student presentations, labs, group work, and private conversations. These recordings are permitted for your own personal use; you should contact me to discuss sharing options. Note that while these recordings are useful for review, we want you to attend class for your insights and questions; these recordings are not substitutes for class participation and attendance. Should you have any concerns or questions, please feel free to contact me through Canvas message. The highlighted below is the Bill that was passed.

The bill adds requirements designed to protect the expression of diverse viewpoints at Florida College System (FCS) institutions and state universities. The bill:

- Requires each FCS institution and state university to annually assess the intellectual freedom and viewpoint diversity at that institution using a survey adopted by the State Board of Education (SBE) or the Board of Governors of the State University System (BOG), as applicable. The SBE and the BOG must publish the results by September 1, 2022, and each September 1 thereafter.
- Prohibits the SBE and the BOG, and FCS institutions and state universities, from shielding students, faculty, or staff from protected free speech.
- Includes in the definition of protected expressive activities faculty research, lectures, writings, and commentary, whether published or unpublished. The bill clarifies that expressive activities do not include defamatory speech.
- Authorizes a student to record video or audio of class lectures for personal educational use, in connection with a complaint to the public institution of higher education where the recording was made, or as evidence in, or in preparation for, a criminal or civil proceeding.
- Modifies the cause of action for violations of student expressive rights to authorize a cause of action for persons injured by violations of specified rights to free speech activities, and adds a cause of action for violations related to the recording and publication of classroom lectures.

The bill requires that state university student government associations provide elected or appointed officers a direct appeal to a senior university administrator of any discipline, suspension, or removal from office. In addition, the bill requires all FCS institutions and state universities to adopt student codes of conduct that meet a set of minimum due process protections for students and student organizations.

These provisions take effect July 1, 2021.

Vote: Senate 23-15; House 77-42

*Note if you need additional clarification on this Bill or your rights regarding this Bill, I will be glad to discuss this material offline as it will take up too much valuable class time that others may find intrusive in their personal commitments to the course. Feel free to write to your Senators or local Representatives or Governor Ron DeSantis and engage in personal politics that do impact your time on planet Earth; specifically the state of Florida and its governing body.

If you are unable to participate in the course due to illness, family emergency, etc., please communicate with me as soon as possible in order to create a plan for the best course of action. In the case of a prolonged online absence of one week or more, you and I will meet to discuss options and determine your ability to continue in the course.

DISCLAIMER: The course outline and syllabus are subject to change as needed; changes will be announced in class and or via email and blackboard notification in a timely manner, when necessary. Your continued participation in this course after the drop-add deadline period constitutes an agreement with and an acceptance of the conditions presented in this syllabus.
