Instructor Contact Information

If at any point during the semester you have any questions or concerns, please email me to schedule a time to meet either online or over the phone.

Instructor's Campus Office: Bldg. 1-333

Instructor's Office Phone #: (407) 582 – 2163 (leave voicemail here)

Humanities Dept. Phone #: (407) 582-2036 or 582- 2341

College Main Phone #: (407) 299-5000

Email: Students may contact me through my Atlas address:

jhasara@valenciacollege.edu. When using Atlas email, please remember to put your name and the name of the course ("ARH 1000") in the subject line of your email. Please allow me 24 hours to respond to your email. The more information you can provide for me in emails the easier it is for me to respond quickly. For example, if you have a question about a homework assignment, tell me the name of the assignment and tell me the wording of the question. Please don't just say I have a question about #4 on the quiz that is due tonight, this is not enough information for me to help you quickly.

Student Engagement Hours

I am happy to help you if you have questions about the course. Please feel free to email me to discuss course materials at any time. I will be checking my email regularly, but I am not required to have office hours during the summer. Let me know by email if you have questions or need help with understanding an assignment, and we can schedule a time to meet via Zoom or for a phone call.

NOTE: If you send me an email after 5pm I have probably signed out for the day, please do not expect a reply until the next day. (If you send me an email over the weekend, you will not get a response right away, so plan ahead!)

No. Credit Hours: 3.0

- Students demonstrate a basic understanding of composition and theory as it is used (or not used) in a work of art.
- Each student employs context appropriate terminology about historical, archaeological and art historical events and subjects

No Required Text

You will NOT have to purchase a textbook for this class. However, you will still be responsible for reading the material I provide. I have created reading materials in the form of Open Educational Resources, this is the substitute for the textbook. You will be able to answer all of the Study Questions from the OER readings and you will use this information to complete the reading quizzes. You will find the OER readings in the Modules. If for some reason you cannot open an OER reading, please let me know and I will assist you.

Additional Required Materials

The instructor will post additional reading materials, worksheets, homework assignments, writing topics, and study guides to the respective CRN in Canvas. All students are responsible for retrieving those materials and printing them out on their own as needed. Some readings and videos are available only on Canvas. If you can't find readings or assignments, you must contact me before the due date for assistance. If you have problems with Canvas, contact tech support: Link.

Basis of Evaluation

Students will be evaluated on the basis of a point system. Each assignment, quiz, and test will be worth a certain number of points. Your final grade will be calculated by adding up the total number of points you received, and dividing that total by the number of points that were available.

Table Indicating Assignments' Worth Based on Percentage

Reading and Lecture Quizzes	25% of the total points available in the course
Discussion Posts	15%
Other Assignments	25%
Tests	35%

Grade distribution will be as follows.

The table lists the Percentage of points needed to earn each grade

Points Earned	Final Grade
90-100% of pts. available	A
80-89%	B

The table lists the Percentage of points needed to earn each grade

Points Earned	Final Grade
70-79%	C
60-69%	D
59% or below	F

When calculating the final grade, only round up the tenth or hundredth percent (the part behind the decimal). So an 79.5% will round up to an 80% and your final grade would be a B. But an 79.3% will not round up so your final grade would be a C. Each number in front of the decimal is equal to about 30-40 points from class assignments and tests. So an 75% cannot round up to a 80% because that would be about 150 points of class work and tests.

Announcements and Atlas Email System

The instructor will post announcements regularly in our Canvas course and use the Atlas email system for contacting students outside of class time. Each student is required to read the announcement that have been posted in the course and to check their Atlas email so that they do not miss any important information from the instructor. The instructor is not responsible for information that is missed because a student failed to check their Atlas email frequently. More information is available in the Course communication page of the Orientation Modules.

Attendance Policy

Attendance is important to successful completion of this class. In an online class, attendance is based on a student's completion of assignments, quizzes, discussion board postings, and tests. A missed deadline for submitting an assignment counts as an absence. Assigned items (whether assignments, discussions, quizzes, or exams) will be closed in the Canvas site after completion of that unit ( the same day as the test for that unit is due) and students will no longer be able to access them. Missed assignments count as absences and you will not have the opportunity to make up absences. Attendance for the class is not graded, so absences will not count against your final grade per se. However, you will receive a zero on all missing assignments, and those zeros will be calculated into a final letter grade. Students with several missing assignments should consider withdrawing from the class before the withdrawal deadline.

The instructor does not distinguish between "excused" and "unexcused" absences. For severe medical conditions that result in excessive absences, consult the Dean of Students concerning Valencia's medical withdrawal policy.

If you are an international student or a student on financial aid, it is your responsibility to know how a "W" will affect your status.

STUDENT WITHDRAWAL POLICY/WITHDRAWAL DEADLINE

June 28th at 11:59 pm is the deadline for withdrawing from a class for the full Summer 2024 term. If you withdraw from a course prior to this date, you will automatically receive a “W,” regardless of the grade you were earning at the time.

The professor will not withdraw you from the course if you stop submitting assignments. If you miss assignments and they have closed in Canvas you will receive a zero on those assignments, and those zeros will be calculated into a final letter grade.

"NO SHOW" POLICY

Students must post an introduction to the Discussion Board by 11:59 pm on the first Wednesday after the semester begins and respond to two other students by the following Sunday at 11:59 pm to avoid being withdrawn from the course as a “No Show.” Class attendance is required for online classes; students who do not submit the required attendance activity or assignment by the scheduled due date must be withdrawn by the instructor at the end of the first week as a "no show". If you are withdrawn as a “no show,” you will be financially responsible for the class and a final grade of “WN” will appear on your transcript for the course.

Policies Concerning Test, Quiz, and Assignment Deadlines

Read more about these policies in the Coursework Policies page of the Orientation Modules.

QUIZZES AND TESTS

Quizzes have a due date, but work like homework assignments, meaning that you can submit them late as long as the submission site is still open. Tests must be completed by 11:59 pm on the due date. Tests cannot be completed late. The submission sites for tests close at 11:59pm on the due date, and after they close they will not be re-opened.

INTERRUPTED QUIZZES OR TESTS

Occasionally it happens that your server, computer, or Canvas has an error while you are taking a quiz or a test, and you need to have the test or quiz reset. If that happens, you can contact me to help you if I am able to—only if the deadline/due date has not passed. Please be aware of and take into account normal office hours (9am-5pm) when I have the best chance of seeing your email and being able to respond before the site closes. If you email me at 11:00 pm when your quiz is due by 11:59 pm that same day, you should not expect a response from me before the deadline. By the following morning, when I read your email, the deadline will have passed and you will not be eligible to retake or take the quiz you missed. Please plan accordingly.

FINAL EXAM POLICY

A final exam time period is included in the state-mandated length of the course, therefore all faculty teaching online must require final exams/final assignments be submitted during the designated final exam period. The Final Exam for this course must be completed by the assigned day and time (see the course calendar or important dates section of the syllabus) unless a student has documented proof of a medical emergency; the medical documentation must be submitted to the instructor by email within 24 hours of the student's medical release.

HOMEWORK ASSIGNMENTS

The readings and homework are posted on Canvas and will be turned through the Canvas submission sites on due dates listed in the Course Schedule. Please check your graded work and read my comments, I'm happy to talk more with you about any comments on assignments. I ask for two weeks to grade assignments. Most assignments will be graded sooner than that, however there are weeks when I have many assignments coming in from all the classes I teach and there are times when assignments (like short writing assignments or essays) take longer for me to grade. If I ever need longer than two weeks to grade an assignment, for example, if I get sick or am out of town, you will be notified.

Deadline for submitting homework assignments: Some homework assignments are due on Wednesdays and some are due on Sundays. They must be submitted by 11:59 pm on the due date. Students are responsible for knowing the due dates for each assignment. Specific information about each assignment can be found by clicking on the Course Schedule available from the Home Page and also by clicking on the "Overview" and reviewing the "Tasks" section.

If you see a score of 1, please read my comments on your assignment. I give you a 1 if I can see that you have tried to submit something but there is a problem viewing it on my end. This happens when files have become corrupted or files are submitted in a format I cannot open, such as Pages. All assignments must be submitted as Word docx or PDFs. If you do not know how to export a Pages doc to a PDF Here is a link to Apple SupportLinks to an external site. that explains how to do this. If this happens and you chose to re-submit the work so I can open it and grade, please send me an email notifying me that you have re-submitted it. Sometimes I don't get notifications from Canvas in these cases so I have no way of knowing that your work is there.

Work that is emailed to the instructor will NOT be accepted—no exceptions—regardless of whether it is late or on-time! It is too easy for assignments to become lost in my inbox because I receive so many emails a day. The safest way for me to guarantee that I will see and grade your work is to submit it through Canvas submission site only. No assignments will be accepted if they are submitted through the comments section of the submission site after the due date has passed. Canvas does not notify if you have submitted an assignment this way, so I have no way of knowing your work is there, which is why I cannot accept assignments that are submitted this way.

LATE HOMEWORK

- - Late homework assignments will be accepted while we are working in that unit. Submissions for Unit 1 stay open until June 5th, which is the due date of the test for that unit. Submission sites for Unit 2 stay open until July 7th, which is the due date of the test for that unit. Late homework assignments will be docked with a 15% deduction from the original amount of total points available for the assignment.
  - No late work will be accepted during Final Exam week. Submission sites for the final unit (Unit 3) will close on Sunday, July 28, 2024.
  - You will receive a zero on all missing assignments, and those zeros will be calculated into a final letter grade. Students with several missing assignments should consider withdrawing from the class before the withdrawal deadline.

- Extenuating circumstances such as religious observances, jury duty, participation in extracurricular activities in which students are official representatives of the college, and active military obligation are recognized as excused (meaning there will be no late penalty for work turned in late because of these things, and submission sites may be opened longer only for these unique circumstances; however, you must notify me two weeks in advance, so we can determine how to best help you move forward based on how long you will be absent from the course.

If you are unable to participate in the course for other reasons, e.g., illness, family emergency, etc., please communicate with me as soon as possible in order to create a plan to complete any missed assignments so that your learning can progress in your course. In the case of a prolonged online absence of one week or more, continuation in the course will be determined on a case-by-case basis through discussion.

GUIDELINES AND GRADING CRITERIA FOR DISCUSSION BOARDS

Students are required to post to the Discussion Board on a regular basis, as this is the only way to create a "classroom" atmosphere. We will always respect each other's courage in sharing opinions and participating in discussions, and presenting work that is thoughtful and thought-provoking. Please use constructive criticism. All students are entitled to a positive learning experience, regardless of sex, race, religion, sexual orientation, social class, or any other feature of personal identification. Therefore, derogatory remarks, rude or disrespectful comments to your classmates or me, or any other comment that disrupts or detracts from the learning environment will not be tolerated.

- All original threads should contain a minimum of five (5) complete sentences, and must be posted by 11:59 pm on Wednesday of the week for which it is assigned. Anyone who does not post their initial thread by the deadline on Wednesday will automatically receive a zero for the Discussion Board, and it will count as an "absence." (See the Attendance Policy for how "absences"—in the form of missed assignments or discussions—will affect a student's status in the course.)
- You should respond to the posts of two other students. These responses should each contain a minimum of three (3) sentences (not counting the greeting) and should be posted by 11:59 pm on Sunday of the week for which it is assigned. Please include a greeting that includes the name of the students you are responding to. (Example: "Hi, Katrina. I really like what you said about so-and-so, but here's how I feel about that . . .)

- You must edit your work before posting. If a post contains numerous spelling, grammar or sentence structure errors, no points will be given.

Posts will be graded according to the following criteria:

- Mastery of the subject matter and concepts
- Evidence of strong critical thinking skills through analysis, synthesis, and/or evaluation
- Writing that is clear, edited, articulate, and free of major grammatical errors
- Thoughtful, engaging responses to classmates' posts that enrich the discussion

RECORDINGS (Face-to-Face Only)

As your professor, I'm committed to giving you as many opportunities and resources to support your learning as possible. Therefore, you may find it beneficial to record class lectures to review later. A class lecture is defined as a planned presentation by a college faculty member or instructor, during a scheduled class, delivered for the purpose of transmitting knowledge or information that is reasonably related to the pedagogical objective of the course in which the student is enrolled. This means, you may not record class discussions, student presentations, labs, group work, and private conversations.

Please keep in mind that you do not have your peers' permission to record them, and they have a right to privacy; your peers should not be in your recordings. These recordings are permitted for your own personal use; you may not publish or share recordings without my written consent, nor may you provide recordings to classmates as a substitution for class participation and attendance. Failure to adhere to these requirements may constitute a violation of the College's Student Code of Conduct.

Note that while these recordings are useful for review, we want you to attend class for your insights and questions; these recordings are not substitutes for class participation and attendance. Should you have any concerns or questions, please feel free to contact me through Atlas email or Canvas message.

Academic Honesty

Throughout this course, we will discuss our opinions and insights openly. However, when it comes to assignments, quizzes, and exams, you may not share answers with another classmate. Academic honesty is absolutely maintained in this course. You will receive a zero for any questions on assignments or tests that are copied directly from the internet. You will receive a zero for any assignment that is plagiarized (from another student or pulled directly from the internet) and may receive a failing grade for the course. If I notice an entire assignment has been plagiarized, you will be warned, and given a zero for that assignment. If another example of plagiarism is discovered at any point during the semester, you will be referred to the dean of the Humanities department and to the dean of students for consequences.

Plagiarism is defined as: "to take (ideas, writing, etc.) from another and pass them off as one's own." It is morally and academically indefensible. Any assignment showing signs of plagiarism, borrowing ideas without giving credit, will receive a zero. Submitting work that is identical to the work of another student, even if it is with the permission of that student, is also unacceptable. Even if you work together on an assignment with a friend, you must always submit assignments that are unique and in your own words.

Plagiarism is a serious academic offense that will result in failure of a particular assignment, you will receive a zero. Depending on the work that is plagiarized it could result in failure of the course, for example, if plagiarism is detected on a writing assignment or exam and the zero received for the assignment lower the final grade in the course to a failing level. If a student is found plagiarizing repeatedly it could result in exclusion from the college. If you are unsure as to what constitutes plagiarism, consult the professor or visit this link to the college policy on academic honesty <https://valenciacollege.edu/about/general-counsel/policy/documents/volume8/8-11-academic-dishonesty.pdf>.

Technology Requirements

COMPUTER/EQUIPMENT REQUIREMENTS

Students should verify computer software and hardware requirements(Links to an external site.) Links to an external site. to ensure course work can be submitted successfully. Since all assignments are submitted through Canvas (unless otherwise noted), access to a computer or tablet is required for this course. Students are encouraged to download the Student Canvas App Links to an external site. onto their mobile device. Students have free access to computers at all Valencia campuses.

WHICH BROWSER TO USE

The latest versions of Firefox, Chrome, and Safari are all good choices for working in Canvas. Important note: If you need help downloading one of these browsers, contact OIT's Learning Technology Services for assistanceLinks to an external site..

- download Google Chrome (Links to an external site.)
- download Mozilla Firefox (Links to an external site.)
- download Safari (Links to an external site.) (Mac OS only)

It's a good idea to have more than one browser installed on your personal computer. Many times problems you experience online can be fixed by switching from one browser to a different browser.

"I really like Internet Explorer (or Edge) - Why shouldn't I use it with Canvas?"

Although officially Canvas supports Internet Explorer/Edge, it doesn't always work well with Canvas. You will experience many problems if you use this browser. These problems include:

- course content not opening correctly or showing up at all
- problems submitting assignments (it will say a file is submitted, but it actually doesn't submit)
- not being able to submit quizzes and exams

Firefox, Chrome, or Safari (for Mac users) are the best bets when using Canvas.

What Internet Browser am I using? Check to see what browser you are using.

Visit the support details website \(Links to an external site.\) and check the "Browser" box to see which browser you are using and other information about your computer.

TECHNOLOGY ACCESS/SKILLS

Students should demonstrate competence in the basic computer skills \(Links to an external site.\) needed to be successful in this course, which are the following areas:

- reading and responding to emails
- using a word-processing program (for example, PowerPoint, MS Word, Google Docs, Office 365, etc.) to type, revise, and edit your course assignments
- using Canvas to submit assignments and upload file attachments
- navigating the electronic library databases
- copying and pasting
- saving files in different formats
- working with attachments
- file management

TECHNOLOGY PRIVACY POLICIES

Valencia College has a firm commitment to protecting the privacy rights of its students. Any use of student records and information in this course will comply with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act \(FERPA\) \(Links to an external site.\), including third party tools and services used in this course. Privacy policies for the tools used in this course are listed below and at the point of use.

- Valencia College privacy policy \(Links to an external site.\)

If you have any concerns or issues with any of these requirements or policies, please contact your instructor.

COPYRIGHT POLICY

To avoid copyright infringement, any materials produced specifically for this class can ONLY be used during this term for this class.

THIRD PARTY SOFTWARE & FERPA POLICY

Valencia College has a firm commitment to protecting the privacy rights of its students. Third party software privacy policies will be provided at the point of use within the course.

Valencia College has a firm commitment to protecting the privacy rights of its students. In making this commitment, the College wants to ensure that all faculty and staff are familiar with state and federal laws pertaining to student privacy, as well as College policies and procedures that have been implemented to help guarantee student privacy.

OFFICE FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES DISCLAIMER

Students with disabilities who qualify for academic accommodations must provide a notification to the instructor (NTI form) from the OSD and discuss specific needs with the professor, preferably during the first two weeks of class. OSD determines accommodations based on appropriate documentation of disabilities. <https://valenciacollege.edu/students/office-for-students-with-disabilities/>

STATEMENT OF SUPPORT FOR STUDENTS WITH MEDICAL/FOOD/HOUSING. FINANCIAL NEEDS

Any student who has difficulty accessing sufficient food to eat, or who lacks a safe and stable place to live, and believes this may affect his or her performance in the course, is urged to meet with a Counselor in the Advising Center for information about resources that may be available from the college or community. <http://net4.valenciacollege.edu/forms/advising-counseling/contact.cfm>

If you are unable to participate in the course due to illness, family emergency, etc., please communicate with me as soon as possible in order to create a plan to complete any missed assignments, so that your learning can progress in this course. In the case of a prolonged online absence, please communicate with me as soon as possible in order to create a plan for the best course of action.

Any student who has difficulty accessing sufficient food to eat, should be aware of Pookie's Pantry located in building 4 is a free food pantry, and is open to any student.
