Final Exam (15 %): You will arrange to go to a Valencia Testing Center or approved testing site near your location to take the final exam.

IMPORTANT: If the Valencia Testing Centers are closed due to the Covid-19 outbreak, the Final Exam will still be proctored via an online testing proctoring system, but will be taken at the student's home via Canvas.

If you live outside the Orlando area and cannot take a scheduled proctored exam at one of Valencia College's Testing Centers, you need to fill out this form Requesting to take a proctored exam at the Testing Center of another institution and e-mail it to your professor four to five weeks prior to the date of the scheduled proctored exam.

The Final Exam expectations are the same as for other exams. The Final Exam is NOT open book/ open note.

1. This exam must be taken in one of Valencia's testing centers or approved testing center, using Canvas.
2. If you do not live in the Central Florida area, you may arrange to take the exam at an accepted proctored site. You must make this arrangement at the beginning of the semester to make sure the site has Valencia's compatible software. See the student resources link for exam sites.
3. When you take the exam you must show your Valencia ID.
4. Each of Valencia's testing centers has different days and hours of operation. Some of their hours may be different from the times posted on their web-page. Please double-check that the hours of operation at the Valencia testing center you intend to use.
5. None of the Valencia's testing centers are opened on Sunday.
6. Saturday hours are limited.

7. None of the testing centers will allow you to sit for the exam one hour prior to the center's closing time.
8. The open hours I allow for the exam do not reflect the hours of the testing centers.
9. You are not allowed to have notes, books, or any other study aids during the exams.

The goal of the final exam is to assess your ability to assimilate what you have learned about Spanish grammar, vocabulary, language, writing and information from your Discussion post and culture. The final exam will be comprehensive and cumulative in nature. The test is not curved and no make-up test will be given. Check schedule for opening and closing date for the Final Exam.

Online Homework Activities via Pearson's 'My Language Lab' (32%):

This course requires completion of online homework activities on the two different Pearson's MyLab platforms (<http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/mylanguagelabs/> ↗ (<http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/mylanguagelabs/>)) (and on <http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/> ↗ (<http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/mylanguagelabs/>)). 'Pearson's MyLanguageLab' is one of the two learning management systems you will use in this course. The activities assigned in the Pearson homework websites are listed in the Calendars on the Pearson homework websites for both the book, "Día a Día" online activities and the "Heritage Speaker Workbook" online activities. These activities are graded and averaged as part of the overall grade. The Pearson homework activities will need to be completed by the dates that appear on the Pearson homework website calendars. Late Pearson activities incur a penalty of 5% reduction for each day they are late. As with any website, you might experience tech issues with the site. Make sure you report tech issues to tech support. Do not email me before you do that. Any email referring to tech issues with the Pearson homework websites should include the incident report number they will provide you.

Attendance/Activity Policy Online:

Attendance in an online class is based on a student's completion of assignments, quizzes, discussion board postings, and tests.

This course is web-based, fully online and considered a "WWW" course. Students are expected to complete and participate in ALL online activities and assignments. Participation in online discussions are similar to attendance in a face-to-face class and joining in group discussions is an absolute requirement. Therefore, you should not miss these asynchronous activities because once a discussion opportunity is missed, it is not possible to make it up. Assignments that are not turned in on Canvas or the Pearson (MyLanguagesLab) online homework websites will receive 0 points, and missed exams cannot be retaken. (See above for MyLanguagesLab online activities late deduction policy.) Be sure to provide pertinent documentation deemed acceptable by the instructor for any excused absence from a discussion group or delayed assignment. Also note that there are no 'Incompletes' given in this course.

For severe medical conditions that result in excessive absences, consult the Dean of Students concerning Valencia's medical withdrawal policy. International students, and students receiving financial aid, should be aware of how a "W" will affect their status - and need to talk to their academic advisor if they are contemplating withdrawing from this course.

<http://international.valenciacollege.edu/current-students/maintaining-visa-status/> ↗ (<http://international.valenciacollege.edu/current-students/maintaining-visa-status/>)

http://valenciacollege.edu/finaid/satisfactory\_progress.cfm ↗ (http://valenciacollege.edu/finaid/satisfactory\_progress.cfm)

Attendance 1st Week of Class:

VERY IMPORTANT: College policy requires that students who are not attending class the first week of classes to be withdrawn from the course. In an online class, attendance is documented by participation. Your Orientation Quiz is proof of attendance the first week of classes. Thus, it is very important that during the first week of class you complete the assignments under the Orientation Module, create your own Pearson My Language Lab account, and complete the Orientation Quiz. Failure to do so will result in being withdrawn from the course during the 1st week of classes.

NOTE: If you stop attending class (or stop completing work) after the 1st week of class, you need to Withdraw yourself by the Withdraw deadline if you don't plan on finishing the course. If you simply stop completing the work and if you do not withdraw yourself, you will still receive a grade at the end of the semester.

Discussion Board / Participation

Participation/ Canvas Discussions (18%): You are required to complete the activities listed in the discussion board, then to check regularly to review the responses of other students, and to add follow-up comments whenever applicable to contribute to the academic discussion thoughtfully and with detail - reply in a paragraph format, one to two paragraph responses. I will be monitoring your progress and the quality of your responses throughout the course. To receive full credit you are required to post one original comment and reply to 5 or more postings. Both your original post and the responses to your classmates need to be written in Spanish in order to receive credit.

The guidelines to receive full credit for discussions are as follows:

- Post an original comment by the Due Date (listed on the Course Schedule)
- Read at least seven other responses
- Reply to a minimum of five (5) or more peers' responses within 2 days from your Original Post Due Date
- Observe the Rules of Netiquette when posting responses. For more information go to: <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html> ↗ (<http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>)
- You are required to post before midnight on the Due Date and will have two days later to respond to other students. No late postings will be accepted.
- Try not reply to other classmates' posts that already have five (5) replies from other students.
- The responses to your peers in your Discussion posts should Not be short 2-3 sentences. Reply posts should be thoughtful and insightful responses at least one to two paragraphs long.

In addition to discussions, this percentage of your grade also includes the 'Meet Your Professor' assignment and other activities that will be announce during the semester.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

You are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty which is set forth in the admission's catalog and the student handbook. In this Spanish class — as in any class—each student must work alone on anything (homework, exams, discussions, compositions, etc.) turned in for a grade. Therefore, the following cases would be included under academic dishonesty:

- Working with one or more other students on homework that is to be turned in for a grade, unless specifically directed to work in groups by the professor.
- Copying another student's homework, copying homework from other resources like online (or from Google or Wikipedia)
- Passing information about the content of an exam to another student
- Using an online translation service to write any assignment for the course
- Self-plagiarism: re-submitting previously submitted work from another course (or a previous course), once again for a another grade

Violation of academic integrity includes copying homework or otherwise turning in work that is not original to you. Cheating in this case applies both to the copier and the person who allows his/her work to be copied. If students believe they are wrongfully graded they must approach their instructor with an explanation. We encourage you to study with others, but not to produce any work submitted for a grade under the direction of others (including Internet resources or resources of any other kind). If a student's work is found to fit any of the academic dishonesty cases, the assignment, quiz or exam submitted will receive a grade of zero. If a student is caught cheating on one activity in MySpanishLab the student will receive a 0 for all activities completed in that one Chapter, not just the single activity.
