Presentations & Projects

Oral presentations & Projects (20%): There will be different types of oral assessments in the course. You will be using your webcam, Canvas and a program of your choice for audio visual presentations. Make sure to start your Research Projects and your Outline early. You need to read the details for the Research Projects under the Module's Tab, scroll down to the different Research Project Modules and read each of the pages with instructions in detail.

You will be using Photo Story®/iMovie or any format mention in the Orientation Module (as well as in your Research project modules) for most oral presentations. If you do not know how to do use the programs available for you, please refer to: “Welcome to SPN 1340 – Orientation – Start HERE!!” tutorial on Canvas which contains videos and written instructions. Remember that all oral presentations are to be recorded in Spanish.

Exams

EXAMS: There are three exams in this course (one per Chapter Module). We will cover chapters 1, 2, & 3 in this SPAN 1340 course, and in the next course SPAN 1341 we will cover Chapters 4, 5, & 6. The chapter exams will be used to calculate your total exam percentage which will count for 15% of your total grade.

Chapter Exams/Tests (15%):

All chapter exams will be administered online via computer under time constraints on the MyLabs Pearson on-line homework platform. Keep in mind that the Pearson on-line homework website does not support test taking with your phone or tablet. The best preparation method for tests is by keeping up with your homework activities and participation in the discussions on Canvas. Tests will be administered at the end of each chapter accessed within the Pearson on-line homework website (you can access the chapter exams and the homework activities for the 'Día a Día' book by clicking on the "MyLab & Mastering" tab located on the top left-hand corner on Canvas). Be aware that there will be no make-up tests. You can see all Due Dates on the Course Schedule on Canvas. Tests will be open for you to take within 48 hours, so plan accordingly as to when you will sit down to complete them. Due dates could vary, but the deadline will be at 11:59pm Eastern time.

Note: If you miss an exam you will receive a 0 (zero). You only have one attempt for each exam. If you have technical problems you should contact me immediately via e-mail and then continue checking your e-mail for additional notifications from me about the course of action you should take after your issue is resolved. You should also contact the Pearson website's Tech Support for additional help. Note that you cannot wait until one hour before the due date/time to attempt the test then email me regarding any problems you encounter because you will miss the deadline.

IMPORTANT:

FINAL EXAM: You will take one final comprehensive exam per semester (which will cover all the material covered throughout the semester - including the information that both you and your classmates wrote about in the Discussion Posts and the Research projects discussions). THE FINAL EXAM IS 15 % OF YOUR GRADE.

Final Exam (15 %):

The Final Exam will be proctored. If you live outside the Orlando area and cannot take a proctored exam you need to fill out this form Requesting to take a proctored exam at the Testing Center of another institution and e-mail it to your professor three weeks prior to the date of the scheduled proctored exam.

The Final Exam expectations are the same as for other exams. The Final Exam is NOT open book/ nor open notes.

1. Due to Campus closures, the Final Exam will be proctored but taken at home using the Canvas' Honorlock proctoring system.

2. When you take the exam you must have your Valencia ID.
3. You are not allowed to have notes, books, or any other study aids during the exams.

The goal of the Final Exam is to assess your ability to assimilate what you have learned about Spanish grammar, vocabulary, language, writing and information from your Discussion post and the Research projects on culture. The final exam will be comprehensive and cumulative in nature. The test is not curved and no make-up test will be given. Check the Course Schedule for opening and closing dates for the Final Exam.

Online Homework Activities via Pearson's 'My Language Lab' (28%):

This course requires completion of online homework assignments on the the two Pearson's MyLab platforms (<http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/mylanguagelabs/> (<http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/mylanguagelabs/>)) (and on <http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/> (<http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/mylanguagelabs/>)) - the homework activities on Pearson for the 'Día a Día' book only, can also be accessed by clicking on the "MyLab & Mastering" tab located on the top left-hand side on Canvas. 'Pearson's MyLanguageLab' is one of the two learning management systems you will use in this course, details on how to access the websites, log in, and course IDs can be found in the 'How to Register to Pearson' page in the Orientation Module. The activities assigned in the Pearson homework websites are listed in the Calendars on the Pearson homework websites for both the book, "Día a Día" online activities and the "Heritage Speaker Workbook" online activities. These activities are graded and averaged as part of the overall grade. The Pearson homework activities will need to be completed by the dates that appear on the Pearson homework website calendars. You have the opportunity to complete each activity multiple times until you receive 100% on every activity. You may also complete the homework activities on the Pearson websites late; however, late activities on Pearson incur a penalty of 5% reduction for each day they are late. As with any website, you might experience tech issues with the site. Make sure you report tech issues to Pearson Tech support. First contact the Pearson Tech support before you e-mail me. Any e-mail referring to tech issues with the Pearson homework websites should include the incident report number they will provide you.

Attendance/Activity Policy Online:

Attendance in an online class is based on a student's completion of assignments, quizzes, discussion board postings, and exams.

This course is web-based, fully online and considered a "WWW" course. Students are expected to complete and participate in ALL online activities and assignments. Participation in online discussions are similar to attendance in a face-to-face class and joining in and responding to group discussions is an absolute requirement. Therefore, you should not miss these asynchronous activities because once a discussion opportunity is missed, it is not possible to make it up. Assignments that are not turned in on Canvas or the Pearson (MyLanguagesLab) online homework websites will receive 0 points, and there are no makeups for missed exams except for extenuating circumstances . (See above for MyLanguagesLab online activities late deduction policy.) Be sure to provide pertinent documentation deemed acceptable by the instructor for any excused absence from a discussion group or delayed assignment.

Important: If you are unable to participate in the course due to illness, family emergency, etc., please communicate with me as soon as possible in order to create a plan to complete any missed assignments so that your learning can progress in your course. In the case of a prolonged online absence, please communicate with me as soon as possible in order to create a plan for the best course of action.

For severe medical conditions that result in excessive absences, consult the Dean of Students concerning Valencia's medical withdrawal policy. International students, and students receiving financial aid, should be aware of how a "W" will affect their status - and need to talk to their academic advisor if they are contemplating withdrawing from this course.

(http://valenciacollege.edu/finaid/satisfactory_progress.cfm)

Attendance 1st Week of Class:

VERY IMPORTANT: College policy requires that students who are not attending class the first week of classes to be withdrawn from the course. In an online class, attendance is documented by participation. Your Orientation Quiz is proof of attendance the first week of classes. Thus, it is very important that during the first week of class you complete the assignments under the Orientation Module, create your own Pearson My Language Lab account, and complete the Orientation Quiz.

Failure to do so will result in being withdrawn from the course at the end of the 1st week of classes.

NOTE: If you stop attending class (or stop completing work) after the 1st week of class, you need to Withdraw yourself by the Withdraw deadline if you don't plan on finishing the course. If you simply stop completing the work and if you do not withdraw yourself, you will still receive a grade at the end of the semester.

Discussion Board / Participation

Participation/ Canvas Discussions (22%): You are required to complete the activities listed in the discussion board, then to check regularly to review the responses of other students, and to add follow-up comments whenever applicable to contribute to the academic discussion thoughtfully and with detail- reply in a paragraph format, two to four paragraph minimum responses. I will be monitoring your progress and the quality of your responses throughout the course. To receive full credit you are required to post one original comment and reply to 5 or more postings. Make sure to read the grading Rubric under each Discussion post carefully. Note that both your Original Post and the responses to your classmates must be written all in Spanish in order to receive credit.

The guidelines to receive full credit for discussions are as follows:

- Post an original comment by the due Date (listed on Course Calendar)
- Read at least seven other responses from your classmates
- Reply to a minimum of five (5) or more peers' responses within 2 days from your Original Post Due Date
- Observe the Rules of Netiquette when posting responses. For more information go to: <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html> (<http://www.albion.com/netiquette/corerules.html>)
- You are required to post before midnight on the Due Date and will have two days later to respond to other students. No late postings will be accepted.
- Try not reply to other classmates' posts that already have five (5) replies from other students.
- The responses to your peers in your Discussion posts should Not be short 2-3 sentences. Reply posts should be thoughtful and insightful responses at least two paragraphs long.

In addition to discussions, this percentage of your grade also includes the 'Meet Your Professor via Zoom' assignment and other activities that will be announce during the semester.

Zoom:

For this class we will have Zoom sessions. Your first Zoom session will be for your first week's required assignment "Meet your Professor via Zoom". Detailed information and instructions can be found in the Orientation Module. Some of our class sessions will be audio visually recorded for students in the class to refer back to. Please note that students who participate with their camera engaged or utilize a profile image are agreeing to have their video or image recorded. If you are unwilling to consent to have your profile or video image recorded, be sure to keep your camera off and do not use a profile image. Likewise, students who un-mute during class and participate orally are agreeing to have their voices recorded. If you are not willing to consent to have your voice recorded during class, you will need to keep your mute button activated and communicate exclusively using the "chat" feature, which allows students to type questions and comments live. We will also be using Zoom for office hours, and Question & Answer sessions.

Email:

Email will be an integral part of this course. Make sure you:

- Make sure you check e-mail daily (this is required for your online courses). Any instructions will have due dates for your response.

- Get the Canvas App and turn on notifications. Set up your Canvas account to receive e-mails in your personal e-mail or get the Canvas App so you do not miss any e-mails or Announcements.
- Use Canvas e-mail to communicate with your professor and classmates. Do not use personal e-mails. You will not receive any response.
- Use a greeting and a closing in all your e-mails. Treat your Valencia e-mail as regular mail, not as text messaging.
- Any e-mail referring to Tech issues with Pearson or Canvas should include the incident report number they will provide you.
- Be patient. Do not expect an immediate response when you send a an e-mail. I will get back to you within 24 to 48 hours on Mondays through Fridays (or sooner). You are also expected to answer e-mails in a timely manner. Weekend e-mails will be answered on the next business day.
- You can use the discussion board title “El Café Latino” in Canvas to ask questions to other students in the class. Just remember that this discussion board is exclusively for the students to help each other and I will not reply to any emergencies or questions about your grade within this discussion board.
- Be courteous and considerate. Remember you are communicating with your professor not with your friend. “Hey”, or calling professors by first name is not acceptable. Being honest and expressing yourself freely is very important but being considerate of others online is just as important as it is in the classroom.
- Make every effort to be as clear as possible in your communications. Online communication lacks the nonverbal cues that fill in much of the meaning in face-to-face communication.
- Do not use all caps. This makes the message very hard to read and is considered "shouting." Make sure to check spelling, grammar, and punctuation (you may want to compose your e-mail in a Word processor (such as Microsoft Word), then after doing Spell Check, cut and paste the message into the discussion or e-mail).
- Break up large blocks of text into paragraphs and use a space between paragraphs. Or if you have multiple questions, number each question you have in order to be as clear as possible.
- Sign all your e-mail messages and include the course you are taking as your professor teaches multiple levels of Spanish and various sections of each course.
- Never assume that your Valencia e-mail is private as others may be able to read or access your e-mails; as all emails and communications at Valencia College are public record.
- Make sure you check e-mail daily (required). Any instructions will have due dates for your response. If you e-mail because of Tech issues, you should send me the e-mail before an assignment is due.

1. A student is permitted to withdraw from a class on or before the withdrawal deadline, as published in the College calendar. the Withdraw deadline for the semester is in the Valencia website (<https://valenciacollege.edu/academics/calendar/>) in the 'Important Dates & Deadline' Calendar link. A student is not permitted to withdraw from a class after the withdrawal deadline.

A faculty member is not permitted to withdraw a student from his or her class as a response to student conduct which falls under the jurisdiction of the Student Code of Conduct (6Hx28:10-03).
3. A student who withdraws from a class before the withdrawal deadline will receive a grade of "W." A student who is withdrawn by a professor will receive a grade of "W." A student who is withdrawn for administrative reasons at any time will receive a grade of "W" or other grade as determined in consultation with the professor. Any student who withdraws or is withdrawn from a class during a third or subsequent attempt in the same course will be assigned a grade of "F".
4. A student who receives a grade of "W" will not receive credit for the course, and the W will not be calculated in the student's grade point average; however, the enrollment will count in the student's total attempts in the specific credit hours.
5. If a student withdraws from a class, the student may, upon request and only with the faculty member's permission (which may be withheld at any time in the sole discretion of the faculty member), continue to attend the course. If a student is withdrawn by a faculty member or is administratively withdrawn, the student is not permitted to continue to attend the class.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY:

You are responsible for understanding what constitutes academic dishonesty which is set forth in the admission's catalog and the student handbook. In this Spanish class — as in any class—each student must work alone on anything (homework, exams, discussions, writing assignments, etc.) turned in for a grade. Therefore, the following cases would be included under academic dishonesty:

- Working with one or more other students on homework that is to be turned in for a grade, unless specifically directed to work in groups by the professor.
- Copying another student's homework, copying homework from other resources like online (or from Google or Wikipedia)
- Passing information about the content of an exam to another student
- Using an online translation service to write any assignment for the course
- Self-plagiarism: re-submitting previously submitted work from another course (or a previous course), once again for a another grade

Violation of academic integrity includes copying homework or otherwise turning in work that is not original to you. Cheating in this case applies both to the copier and the person who allows his/her work to be copied. If students believe they are wrongfully graded they must approach their instructor with an explanation as soon as they receive their graded assignment. We encourage you to study with others, but not to produce any work submitted for a grade under the direction of others (including internet resources or resources of any other kind). If a student's work is found to fit any of the academic dishonesty cases, the assignment, quiz or exam submitted will receive a grade of zero. If a student is caught cheating on one activity in MySpanishLab the student will receive a 0 for all activities completed in that one Chapter, not just the single activity.

STUDENT CONDUCT:

Valencia College is dedicated to promoting honorable personal and social conduct. By enrolling at Valencia, a student assumes the responsibility for knowing and abiding by the rules articulated in the Student Code of Conduct (6Hx28:10-03). The instructor reserves the right to refer students who engage in activities that are disruptive to the learning environment to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action.

Emails with specific questions will be answered as soon as possible, usually within 24 hours (during week days).

Students who need more than a brief response should arrange a meeting with me during my office hours or via Zoom.

- In addition, Valencia College strives to provide a drug-free learning environment for all those involved in the academic experience. Our policy is as follows:

POLICY: In compliance with the provisions of the Federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989, Valencia College will take such steps as are
