

Directions for the Writing Assignment:

“Describe and discuss the impact of the Persian Wars on the development of literature in Ancient Athens.”

Be sure to reference at least 1 specific example (something written in Athens during or after the Persian Wars) - to illustrate your conclusion. Your paper must be between 750–1250 original words in length (not including anything else but your essay). All students are to use the MLA format of referencing. It is very important that you discuss the historical context of the specific examples you choose in the field of the visual arts or architecture of that period.

Instructions:

1) Type using size 11 font. Set spacing at 1.15. Remember to copy the question as it is seen above. Create your own title underneath the question.

2) On the top left-hand side of your paper please include your heading:
