

I Love Lucy – America’s most beloved Television series; starring Lucille Ball as Lucy; Desi Arnaz as Ricky Ricardo – which had a 6 year run. It began as a _____ program in 1948 called: _____ By October, 1951, CBS moved the show to TV, using her Real-life Cuban-American husband: _____ What show was voted by her fans to be the most popular Lucy episode ever? _____ - Lucy Does a TV Commercial. Why is it so funny?

The Ed Sullivan Show – Every Sunday Night at 8 PM from 1948-1971, America tuned in to its favorite variety show. (Airing for over ___ years) Ed Sullivan helped launch the careers of many rock stars [to America] like: The Beatles, The Doors, & The Rolling Stones. On September, 1956 - _____ made his debut on TV. He let loose with a ‘hip shaking’ performance - which rubbed some viewers the wrong way. 4 Months later, the cameras were ordered to film him _____. He got his nickname: _____ from this incident.

The Dick Van Dyke Show – A popular sitcom that ran for 5 years, winning 16 Emmys; a tailored-made show for the star’s unique comedic talent, especially as a ‘physical performer’ Starring: _____ as Rob Petrie, & his wife played by: _____ It’s unique “Trip over the ottoman” opening, had _____ different versions. The network was worried if the show titled “That’s my Boy” (A flashback episode) would be offensive. This show got its single biggest audience reaction in its 5 yr. run. How did this show make Rob Petrie look like a fool?

The Fugitive (1st Miniseries before the word was even coined) – Starring _____ as Dr. Richard Kimble, a man accused of murdering his wife. Kimble escapes the police and the series shows Dr. Kimble running from Lt. Gerald (the law), yet searching for the true murderer, a _____ After 4 yrs. of physically demanding work, the star wanted to call it quits. The concluding 2-part finale Episode called: _____ was important for closure for the TV series. Who killed the Real murderer? _____ Where was he killed? _____ Why was the show canceled after 4 successful seasons? _____

All in the Family (famous for breaking down the comic taboos on Network TV) starring a blue-collared dock worker who saw his world in Black & White named - _____ In the episode : _____, starring _____, who pestered the show’s creator, Norman Lear to get on the show. Sammy accidentally leaves his _____ in Archie’s cab, and comes to Archie’s Home to pick it up. Archie cautions his dingbat wife, Edith, to not mention Sammy’s glass eye, yet Archie makes the mistake of saying: ‘Do ya take cream & sugar in _____?’ This classic show combined Archie’s fondest dream with his worst nightmare in the dilemma of: How does this charming entertainer, who is black, Jewish, & the owner of a Glass eye - get back at Archie for all of his (Archie’s) bigoted notions? The producers saved the best act for last with: _____ Archie sits in his favorite armchair, mouthing 1 bigoted notion after another – but Sammy gets his revenge! How?

The Brady Bunch – a show for kids about kids, featuring _____ kids; _____ girls & _____ boys, all 1 year apart. In the most famous episode: _____; _____ is asked out by her dream-date, _____; but to go out she has to break her date with ‘Nice Guy’ Charlie. How does she break her date with Charlie? _____ What happens to Marcia Brady just before her big date? _____ The show’s associate producer, _____ - what is his claim to fame? _____ Why do we think it hurt so much? _____ One of many typical episodes of The Brady Bunch – what was the purpose of these shows?

Saturday Night Live – turned improv-comedy into an institution on Late Night television and introduced Television viewers to a new generation of gifted performers collectively called: _____
 _____ SNL has launched the careers of dozens of performers, turning late night comedy into an institution, today!

Dallas – the 1st evening soap opera; told the story of a Texas oil family, _____, who lived on a magnificent & sprawling Texas Ranch called _____, just outside Dallas, Texas. The show had 40 million devoted viewers every week in the U.S. & even closed down Pubs in England on Friday nights! J.R. Ewing, the Texas Oilman and Villain who personified opulence & excess by the belief: _____
 The shows' cliffhanger (end of Spring, 1980) had millions of people betting each other concerning, Who Shot J.R.? - One of the most popular cliffhangers, ever. Even the studio kept it secret as to who did it – so none of the actors even knew. And to make matters worse, by the beginning of the Fall, 1980 – when the new TV season is to start, an actor's strike kept us in suspense by delaying the secret until Nov. 21, 1980 – when we finally found out just who shot J.R. Ewing! How did the studio keep this secret? _____
 _____. Who shot J.R.? _____

Mash – 11 Seasons, 251 episodes dealing with the mixed emotions & stories of a Corp of Doctors, Nurses, & staff of the 4077 army unit who are trying to keep their humanity & humor in the midst of the Korean War conflict. The 2.5 hr finale, aired on 2/28/83, titled: _____ In the last scene, BJ says goodbye to Hawkeye and to the viewers of America. How is this done? _____
 What does M A S H stand for? _____

Cheers – a favorite Thursday night hang-out on NBC for 11 years-running from 1982-1993. Set at a famous bar 'Where everyone _____ The show was named after an actual bar in Boston called: _____ Starring Ted Danson as the sexy, owner & bartender, Sam Malone, along with Diane, Norm, Cliff, Rebecca, Carla, and Woody To avoid glorifying drinking, NBC made the bar owner to be a recovering alcoholic who drank nothing but bottled water.

The Tonight Show with host, Johnny Carson, the undisputed: _____
 Hosting the show for over ____ years, along with his sidekick: Ed McMahon who is famous for introducing Mr. Carson as: _____. Johnny finished his beginning dialogue with his famous trademark: _____ signaling the start of this nightly music-comedy-talk show fest. To point out Johnny Carson's natural sense of humor, Ed McMahon told us about one of the many eccentric people that Johnny had as a guest, who collected remarkable looking Potato Chips – known as the: _____
 _____. Why did Ed think the lady was "going to keel over"?

Johnny had his last regular Tonight Show episode with 2 honored guest stars: _____
 and _____ on May 21, 1992. How did Johnny Carson say goodbye to late night America? _____

Survivor – in 2000, Reality Television is born, beginning with the idea to isolate 16 ordinary people, under the watchful eye of the camera & watch as they scheme or struggle to outwit, outplay, & outlast each other under some of the most unreal circumstances. Executive producer: _____
 Hosted by: _____ The 1st show was set on a remote island off the coast of _____ The 1st Hero/Villain was: Richard Hatch was a master of manipulating others... "I caught that fish"...
 What is the prize at the end of each series? _____