Course and College Policies

College Policies

A full description of all College policies can be found in the College Catalog; Policy Manual; and the Student Handbook.

Attendance Policy

Online courses move swiftly, and it is easy for students to fall behind if not actively engaging in class discussions. Peer-to-Peer communication—facilitated through weekly discussion posts—is the primary method of keeping attendance in online classes. If you miss a discussion board post, your instructor may message you (via your grade book) to ascertain if there are any problems preventing your participation. Students who fail to complete three (3) successive discussion posts may be reported for possible withdrawal from the course for lack of participation.

NOTE: Regarding extended absences for non-extenuating circumstances: I understand that sometimes we make plans in the middle of other responsibilities. However, I do not consider events like taking vacation, trips and the likes as justifiable situations that meet extenuating circumstances. Therefore, if you have planned on going away for an extended period of time (I consider extended missing more than two consecutive weeks' worth of class participation in any modality), I strongly suggest that you familiarize yourself with your student handbook, specifically College Policy 6Hx28: 4-7: Academic Progress, Course Attendance and Grades, and Withdrawals

Again, I understand that sometimes we cannot just plan our lives around our work or academic responsibilities, but I am a firm believer that you must learn to balance both now so that when you enter the workforce later you do not do so with unrealistic expectations. Therefore, take note that I do not make exemptions or exceptions for non-extenuating circumstances. Unjustifiable being and mostly meaning emergency situations. This shared, if you plan or have planned to be absent for an extended period as explained above (as per the syllabus), I do expect you to continue to complete due work on time.

Make-Up Policy

Students are adult learners responsible for both their actions and inaction. As such, tardiness is considered unprofessional and is generally not condoned.

Weekly discussion board posts are not accepted late for academic credit since feedback is given to the class, which would give the student who submits late an unfair advantage.

- Original/Initial discussion postings (not including peer responses where applicable) MUST be submitted by Thursdays by 11:59pm. There will be a 25% deduction for posts that do not meet this expectation. Peer responses, where applicable, may be submitted thru Sundays no later than 11:59pm.
- Discussions, where peer responses are required, will be deducted 50% of total points for not meeting peer responses (whether one or two) expectations.

- Case study multiple-choice exams may be submitted late given extenuating circumstances. Such late work will be accepted on a case-by-case basis, but only when students have made prior arrangements with the instructor at least 48 hours before assignment's due dates.

Academic Honesty

Students will be expected to adhere to the Valencia College Student LifeMap Handbook as it references Valencia College's Policy #6HX28:08-11

Student Code of Conduct

Students will be expected to adhere to the Valencia College Student LifeMap Handbook as it references Valencia College's Policy #6HX28:08-03

Withdrawal Policy

Students who are enrolled, but do not participate during the first week of the course will be classified as “no show” students and may be withdrawn from the course by Dr. Pizarro. A student is permitted to withdraw from a class on or before the withdrawal deadline as published in the College's Important Dates Calendar.

A student is not permitted to withdraw from a class after the withdrawal deadline. However, the professor is permitted to withdraw a student from the class for violation of the professor's attendance policy with written notification to the student prior to the beginning of the final exam period as published in the faculty member's syllabus.

- A student who withdraws from a class before the withdrawal deadline will receive a grade of "W."
- A student who is withdrawn by a professor will receive a grade of "W."
- A student who is withdrawn for administrative reasons at any time will receive a grade of "W" or another grade as determined in consultation with the professor.
- Any student who withdraws or is withdrawn from a class during a third or subsequent attempt in the same course will be assigned a grade of "F".

* Ultimately, it is the student's responsibility to withdraw himself or herself from the course ****

Final course grades of "A", "B", "C", "D", or "F" shall be assigned based upon the student's academic achievement upon the completion of all course work. Missed assignments shall receive zero points. A grade of "I" or Incomplete may be posted at the term's end by the professor only under extenuating circumstances.

CLASS POLICIES:

1. Multiple Choice Exams will be made available for a full week. Students will have 120-minutes to complete online exams.
2. Students must do their own work; there are no exceptions. Students who plagiarize or cheat in any way, risk dismissal from the class and expulsion from the college.
3. Students must have an active Atlas account. Students must check their Atlas e-mails regularly as to not miss any important messages from the professor. Missed messages via Atlas or any other medium (in-class, etc.) may affect your grade and are the responsibility of the student.
4. Students with disabilities who qualify for academic accommodations must provide a letter from the Office of Students with Disabilities, and accommodations will be based upon said documentation. Contact OSD directly at West Campus SSB 102, ext. 1523.
