Navigating this Online Course:

1. Log into Canvas and on the left column you will see tabs such as “Announcements”, “Assignments”, “Discussion”, “Grades”, “Syllabus”, “Pages”, “People”, and so forth.
2. Click on any of these tabs to get access to the information that you need. For example, the “Assignments” tab or thread, as it is often called, is where assignments/assessments are located.
3. The week runs from Monday at 12:30 am through Sunday at 11:59 pm Eastern Standard Time (EST). It is your responsibility to complete all assignments/assessments when they are available and post your work before 11:59 pm on Sunday to avoid serious penalty.

4. For the discussion questions, you are to completely answer the questions, and post your work by Thursday of the week that the discussion is due. This is to allow your fellow learners adequate time to comment on your work before the Sunday 11:59 pm deadline. Please understand that in order to receive full credit for discussion posts, you must respond substantively to a minimum of three of your fellow learners' posts. What do I mean by substantively? I am glad you asked. To reply to a fellow learner merely "I like your post" is not substantive. Rather, a substantive response could be, "your discussion of the legal description as an important determinant in setting the property's price was very interesting. However, although the address is necessary to locate the property, it is not sufficient to identify the property. Indeed, addresses are often renamed over time and even physical boundaries can change course, such as that of a local creek."

Proctored Exam Requirement

This course utilizes Honorlock, an online exam proctoring service, to promote academic integrity during online testing. You do not need to create an account, download software, or schedule an appointment in advance. Honorlock is available 24/7. After you verify your identity and scan your room, you can begin your exam. Honorlock will record you via webcam, as well as record your screen activity. Honorlock's system also includes a process that can detect inappropriate search-engine use, while protecting the privacy of your personal information. The recorded information will be subject to the protection of the College's policy on Student Records.

To take an online exam, you will need:

- A laptop or desktop computer with a microphone (not a tablet or phone)
- A webcam
- Reliable Internet connection
- Photo identification in the form of a Valencia-issued student ID card or government-issued ID card (i.e. driver's license, passport)
- Google Chrome downloaded (required browser)
- Honorlock Chrome Extension downloaded

Honorlock support is available 24/7/365. Support access is built into Honorlock in real-time.

If you encounter any issues during an exam, you can contact support by live chat within the Honorlock window in Canvas, by phone (855-828-4004), and/or by email at support@honorlock.com. For answers to common questions on online proctoring, visit the Student FAQ page or Honorlock's student information website.

EVALUATION:

Review Questions – 15% of the course grade

There will be 10 sets of review (end of chapter) questions in the course. The review question portion of the course grade will be determined by the average of 10 sets of review questions.

Essay Questions – 30% of the course grade

There will be one set of essay questions for each chapter in the course. The essay questions portion of the course grade will be determined by the average of 10 sets of essay questions. An acceptable posting constitutes detailed answers to the essay questions (with the aid of the textbook), plus substantive responses to a minimum of three of your fellow learners' posts.

Exams – 25% of the course grade

There will be 5 exams in the course. The exam portion of the course grade will be determined by the average of 5 exams.

Comprehensive Final Exam – 30% of the course grade

The comprehensive final will consist of a 50-question exam covering the entirety of the course and will account for 30% of the course grade.

Florida Real Estate Commission Exam

While the state licensure exam is not a part of the evaluation of this course and the results will not make up part of the course grade, many students who have also completed REE 1000 Real Estate Principles and Practices elect to take the exam to attempt to obtain a Florida Real Estate license. This exam is not part of the intended course outcomes and there is no guarantee what -so- ever that the student will have the ability to pass the exam.

No guarantee is made regarding any student's ability to pass the state (FREC) exam. If a student is not interested in being eligible to take the state of Florida Sales Associate licensing exam the student may elect to take a separate 50-question multiple choice final exam for each course. However, if the student later decides they want to take the state licensing exam they will be required to take the 100-question combined end-of-course exam and pass it with a grade of 70 or better.

Grading Policy:

Students taking this course for college credit will receive a final grade based on the following GRADING SCALE:

90 - 100	A
80 – 89	B
70 – 79	C
60 – 69	D
0 - 59	F

Withdrawal Policy:

"A student is permitted to withdraw from a class on or before the withdrawal deadline (04/14/2023) as published in the College calendar. A student is not permitted to withdraw from a class after the withdrawal deadline. Prior to the beginning of the final exam period, the professor is permitted to withdraw a student from the class for violation of the professor's attendance policy. Written notification will be provided to the student prior to withdrawal.

A student who withdraws from a class before the withdrawal deadline will receive a grade of "W." A student who is withdrawn by a professor will receive a grade of "W." A student who is withdrawn for administrative reasons at any time will receive a grade of "W" or other grade as determined in consultation with the professor. Any student who withdraws or is withdrawn from a class during a third or subsequent attempt in the same course will be assigned a grade of "F".

Final course grades of "A", "B", "C", "D", or "F" shall be assigned based upon the student's academic achievement upon the completion of all course work, including the required final examination. "A student who fails to take the required final examination may receive a final course grade earned, unless the professor elects to assign the student a grade of "I" or as otherwise addressed in the Professor's course syllabus." Please note that the final exam is worth 30% of your overall total grade for the course. Therefore, if a student chooses not to take the final exam, the student will receive a "0" on the exam. The student will then receive a final course grade based on the cumulative points earned on all other assessments as specified in the evaluation section on the previous page of the syllabus.

"No Show" Policy:

Class attendance is required beginning with the first-class meeting. If you do not attend the first-class meeting, you may be withdrawn from the class as a "no show." Students who are not actively participating in an online class and/or do not submit the first assignment by the scheduled due date must be withdrawn by the instructor at the end of the first week as a "no show". If you are withdrawn as a "no show," you will be financially responsible for the class and a final grade of "WN" will appear on your transcript for the course. The policy can be located at the following link:

<http://catalog.valenciacollege.edu/academicpoliciesprocedures/classattendance/>

CLASSROOM POLICIES:

1. Students must do their own work; there are no exceptions. Students who plagiarize or cheat, in anyway, risk dismissal from the class, "F" for the assignment, or "F" for the course. There are no provisions for make-ups in this course.
2. Students must have an active Atlas account. Students must check their Atlas e-mails regularly as to not miss any important messages from the professor. Missed messages via Atlas or any other medium (in-class, etc.) may affect your grade and are the responsibility of the student.

3. Students with disabilities who qualify for academic accommodations must provide a Notification to Instructor (NTI) form from the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) and discuss specific needs with the professor, preferably during the first two weeks of class. The Office for Students with Disabilities determines accommodation based on appropriate documentation of disabilities (East Campus Bldg. 5, Rm 216 Ph: 407-582-2229).
4. Participation: Students who do not participate in the course room for two consecutive weeks, as described below, will be subject to withdrawal. Participation is recorded each time students log into the course room on Blackboard (recorded minutes). To receive full credit for participating in the class, students must participate weekly AND at least one of the following items must be completed each week as directed by the instructor:
 1. Submit an academic assignment.
 2. Submit a quiz or exam.
 3. Participate in a posted online academic discussion.

If the syllabus notes additional activities that must be completed during a given week or time period, for the student to be viewed as having “participated” in the course, those instructions apply, in addition to the minimal requirements listed above.

NOTE:

- Logging into class without active participation does not constitute weekly participation.
- Participation must be in the course room on Blackboard. Work done in a lab or other outside environment will not count towards participation.
- The online course environment weeks run from Monday at 12:30am EST to Sunday at 11:59pm EST.
- Assignments done in a week other than the week when the assignment is due will not count towards participation for the previous or a future week.

Students are strongly encouraged to log into the course room frequently in order to understand the subject fully and to be successful in the class.

Academic Honesty: All forms of academic dishonesty are prohibited at Valencia College. Academic penalties may include, without limitations one or more of the following: Loss of credit for an assignment, examination, or project; withdrawal from the course, reduction in the course grade; or a grade of “F” in the course. Students will be expected to adhere to the Valencia College Student Life Map Handbook as it references Valencia College’s Policy #6HX28:08-11 (www: valenciacollege.edu).

STANDARDS OF CLASSROOM CONDUCT:

Valencia College is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge and learning and to the development of responsible personal and social conduct. By enrolling at Valencia College, a student assumes the responsibility for becoming familiar with and abiding by the general rules of conduct as listed in 6HX28:08-03 (www: valenciacollege.edu) and the student Handbook. Even though Faculty manage the classroom environment, the primary responsibility for maintaining a respectful and civil learning environment rests with the students. Students who violate the Student Code of Conduct may be referred to the Dean of Student's Office for disciplinary action, which may result in a sanction up to and including expulsion.

COLLEGE POLICIES:

A full description of all College policies can be found in College Catalog and at College Policies.

Students may record video or audio of class lectures for their own personal educational use. A class lecture is defined as a planned presentation by a college faculty member or instructor, during a scheduled class, delivered for the purpose of transmitting knowledge or information that is reasonably related to the pedagogical objective of the course in which the student is enrolled. Recording class activities other than class lectures, including but not limited to class discussions, student presentations, labs, academic exercises involving student presentation, and private conversations, is prohibited. Recordings may not include the image or voice of other students in the class, may not be used as a substitute for class participation and class attendance, and may not be published or shared without the written consent of the faculty member. Failure to adhere to these requirements may constitute a violation of the College's Student Code of Conduct.

This class requires participation in discussion to meet course-learning outcomes. We are a class comprised of individuals. As such, there will be multiple opinions expressed throughout the semester that you may not personally agree with or even understand - as may be expected. My role as an instructor is to facilitate freedom of expression that is relevant to the course, credible, open and respectful without the promotion or endorsement of a single viewpoint. Conversations informed by diverse viewpoints contribute to critical thinking and higher-level learning. Even if you don't agree, listening to different points of view may give you further insight into your own perspectives. No lesson is intended to espouse, promote, advance, inculcate, compel a particular feeling, perception, viewpoint, or belief in a concept. Concepts as presented are not endorsed by the instructor but are presented as part of the larger course of instruction. Should a student feel uncomfortable with how course content is presented or discussed, please contact the instructor for further conversation.
