COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The New Student Experience course is designed to assist students in formulating their purpose in life. Through self-discovery, students will investigate their interests, strengths and personal values that align with their educational and career goals.

Emphasis is on orientation to college, integrated student success skills, and the development of an academic blueprint (my education plan). Students will learn and integrate practical applications to communicate across diverse populations.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR:

<http://valenciacollege.edu/calendar/>

REQUIRED MATERIALS:

- Textbook: StrengthsQuest: Discover and Develop Your Strengths in Academics, Career and Beyond (2nd Edition) by Donald O. Clifton and Edward “Chip” Anderson with Laurie A. Schreiner. ISBN: 1-59562-011-7. The textbook must be purchased new to ensure the access code has never been used before.
- Valencia College Student Handbook (provided during orientation).
- Three-Ring Binder with Tabs to maintain all work, handouts & activities.
- Access to a computer (to include Blackboard and Atlas), paper, pencils, pen, highlighters and USB flash drive for storing assignments and project in class.

MAJOR LEARNING OUTCOMES: 6 P’s

Upon the Completion of this course, students will be able to:

- Purpose: Students will create a personal purpose statement that outlines and articulates their values, goals, interests, and strengths in relation to their educational and career aspirations.
- Pathway: Students will choose an academic program aligned with their educational/career goals, interests, strengths, and values.
- Plan: Students will design an academic blueprint (education plan) that includes goals for learning and a financial plan.
- Preparation: Students will apply college success skills.
- Personal Connection: Students will demonstrate effective communication skills with diverse groups.
- Place: Students will demonstrate awareness of college support systems.

VALENCIA STUDENT COMPETENCIES:

Valencia faculty have defined four interrelated competencies

- Think: “think clearly, critically, and creatively, analyze, synthesize integrate, and evaluate in many domains of human inquiry”
- Value: “make reasoned judgements and responsible commitments”
- Act: “act purposely, effectively, and responsibly”
- Communicate: “communicate with different audiences using varied means”

Additional information is available in the College Catalog: <http://www.valenciacollege.edu/catalog>.

GENERAL EDUCATION LEARNING OUTCOMES:

- Critical Thinking: Students will establish critical thinking skills by analyzing information, ideas, concepts, applying themes, and organizing main points, support and content with clear explanations.
- Oral Communication: Students will develop, organize and support verbal messages, as well as prepare and deliver extemporaneous speeches.
- Interpersonal Communication: Students will establish listening and self-monitoring skills.

ACADEMIC ADVISING:

New Student Experience (NSE) faculty will provide ongoing academic advising to students through in-classroom activities and out-of-classroom appointments. NSE faculty may be consulted by students throughout their first year at Valencia and should be considered students' go-to source of information. Faculty may refer to additional experts across the Valencia campus community, depending on students' needs.

EMAIL:

Communication between the student and the college will occur through your official Valencia College email address (student@mail.Valenciacollege.edu). Check your email daily.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

All forms of academic dishonesty are prohibited at Valencia College. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, acts or attempted acts of plagiarism, cheating, furnishing false information, forgery, alteration or misuse of documents, misconduct during a testing situation, facilitating academic dishonesty, and misuse of identification with intent to defraud or deceive. All work submitted by students is expected to be the result of the students' individual thoughts, research, and self-expression. Whenever a student uses ideas, wording, or organization from another source, the source shall be appropriately acknowledged. Students shall take special notice that the assignment of course grades is the responsibility of the students' individual professor. For more information, see Valencia's policy: http://valenciacollege.edu/generalcounsel/policy/default.cfm?policyID=193&volumeID_1=8&navst=0

ATTENDANCE:

Because so much of the learning is cumulative, interactive and participatory, attendance is a must! Attendance is required at your assigned class. You should be on time to each class, complete all assignments, and remain in class for the entire time unless prior permission has been given by the instructor to leave early. Three (3) absences, without adequate excuse, may result in withdrawal from the course. In the event of an absence, it is your responsibility to contact your instructor via Blackboard email. Communication is critical when you are unable to attend class. Note: As part of the attendance/participation grade, five points will be deducted for each unexcused absence and two points will be deducted for each tardy. Attendance will be calculated into the Final grade.

TARDINESS/TALKING:

Repetitive tardiness (three (3) late arrivals) will count as one (1) absence.

Please be on time to class. Tardiness is disruptive to your classmates and your instructor. If you come into class after roll has been taken, you are considered tardy and it is now your responsibility to contact the instructor after class, so your attendance is recorded. Any disruption of the class to include; talking, ringing, singing, beeping, honking, or vibrating cell phones in class will result in the student being asked to leave the classroom.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES:

All electronic devices MUST BE PLACED ON SILENT during class. The electronic device may be needed for the duration of an in class activity. If you have an emergency situation that requires your cell phone to be on, please notify your instructor at the beginning of class.

CLASS PARTICIPATION:

You should consider being a student as a full-time job. You should attend all classes, study sessions, participate in class, ask relevant questions, turn in assignments when they are due, and ask for help when needed from an instructor, tutor, or another student. For each absence five (5) points per day will be deducted from your attendance grade. You are allowed up to three (3) absences before you are in danger of being withdrawn from the course. Attendance during the last two weeks for final exams is required.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS:

- Respect classmates and the professor.
- TURN OFF ALL ELECTRONIC devices (cell phones, PDAs, IPODs, iPADS, or other electronic devices) or place the device on vibrate and remove ear buds or ear phones.
- Be prepared and bring all materials to class.
- Adhere to deadlines.

IMPORTANT DATES & DEADLINES:

- Drop/Refund Deadline
- February 20, 2017 @ (11:59pm)
- Withdrawal Deadline:

<http://valenciacollege.edu/calendar/documents/FallSpringSummer16-17ImportantDatesrev.12-2-16.pdf>

WITHDRAWAL DEADLINE & POLICY:

The withdrawal deadline date is April 7, 2017 @ 11:59 pm.

http://valenciacollege.edu/calendar/importantdates_withdraw.cfm

The Valencia College Policy states, "a student is permitted to withdraw from a class on or before the withdrawal deadline of a term, as published in the College calendar."

A student who withdraws from a class before the withdrawal deadline will receive a grade of "W." A student is not permitted to withdraw from a class after the withdrawal deadline.

A faculty member is permitted to withdraw a student from the faculty member's class up to the beginning of the final exam period, for violation of the faculty member's attendance policy, as published in the faculty member's syllabus. A faculty member is not permitted to withdraw a student from his/her class as a response to student conduct which falls under the jurisdiction of the Student Code of Conduct (6Hx28:8-03). A student who is withdrawn by a professor at any time before the start of the final examination period will receive a grade of "W."

Official Valencia College Withdrawal Policy:

<http://valenciacollege.edu/generalcounsel/policy/documents/Volume4/4-07-Academic-Progress-Course-Attendance-and-Grades-and-Withdrawals.pdf>

AFTER THE WITHDRAWAL DEADLINE:

A student is not permitted to withdraw after the withdrawal deadline. A professor may withdraw you up to the beginning of the final exam period for violation of the class attendance policy in which case you will receive a grade of "W".

During a first or second attempt in the same course at Valencia, if you withdraw or are withdrawn by the professor, you will receive a "W" on your transcript for the course grade. You will not receive credit for the course, and the W will not be calculated in your grade point average; however, the enrollment will count in your total attempts in the specific course.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT:

(2016- 2017 College Catalog) Valencia College is dedicated not only to the advancement of knowledge and learning but it is concerned with the development of responsible personal and social conduct. By enrolling at Valencia College, a student assumes the responsibility for becoming familiar with and abiding by the general rules of conduct. The primary responsibility for managing the classroom environment rests with the faculty. Students who engage in any prohibited or unlawful acts that result in the disruption of a class may be directed by the faculty member to leave the classroom. Violation of any classroom or Valencia's rules may lead to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from Valencia. Disciplinary action could include being withdrawn from class, disciplinary warning, probation, suspension, expulsion, or other appropriate and authorized actions. You will find the Student Code of Conduct in the current Valencia

Student Handbook, p. 213.

DESCRIPTION OF MAJOR ASSIGNMENTS AND PROJECTS

Final Exam My Story Project:

Over the course of the semester, students will have an opportunity to learn about the valuable resources on campus and how to navigate their way through college and beyond in order to successfully accomplish their ultimate purpose in life. Through this course experience, students will develop a career pathway to ensure that they are on the right track to pursuing their academic and career goals. The Final Story Project will require students to present where they will be five to eight years from now. Students are required to include information such as their purpose and educational and career plans in their presentation. Detailed instructions will be provided to guide the development of the presentation. All STUDENTS are to be present for the days of finals. If you miss any day, 20 points will be deducted per day from your overall points.

Purpose Paper:

Students will learn about purpose and will explore their personal purpose. Students will create a personal purpose paper that outlines and articulates their values, goals, interests and strengths in relation to their educational and career aspirations. Detailed instructions will be provided regarding the paper content and format.

Academic Blueprint (My Education Plan):

Students will be introduced to the My Education Plan in LifeMap. My Education Plan is a tool that allows students to review the courses that are part of their degree (A.A. or A.S.) and create a plan for completion. After reviewing their My Education Plan, students will research the institutions they plan to attend and create a plan of action that will be used for the successful completion of their degree. Detailed instructions will be provided regarding the assignment content and format.

Co-curricular Experience:

The New Student Experience course is intended to help you become familiar with the services and resources available at the college, identify your purpose, and establish personal connections. The following assignment is designed to support these course outcomes through interactive activities that we refer to as Co-Curriculars.

To successfully complete this assignment, you are required to complete three (3) Co-Curricular activities, provide proof of attendance for each Co-Curricular, and complete a corresponding reflection for each Co-Curricular.

Co-Curricular activities occur outside of class time. There are deadlines for each Co-Curricular, so it is important to complete each assignment on time.

Instructions for Co-Curricular Experience:

You will have to complete each of the following:

1. Place: Visit one office at Valencia and speak with a staff member there.
2. Purpose: Attend one approved event (on or off campus) that aligns with your purpose and career goals.
3. Personal Connection: Attend a scheduled Personal Connection session on one of Valencia's campuses. A detailed schedule of the session will be provided by your professor. Some campuses require you register for the session in advance. If you are attending this Co-Curricular on West, Osceola, Winter Park or Lake Nona Campus, visit nsecocurricular.checkappointments.com to register for the session. If you are attending this session on East Campus, seats are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Proof of Attendance:

You will be required to submit proof of attendance for each Co-Curricular. Each proof of attendance form may be stamped or signed at the end of activity. If you are unable to get a signature or stamp, you may use an artifact from the activity such as a flyer, brochure, business card, program, etc. Please note the following about the proof of attendance forms:

- You must print the proof of attendance form prior to attending each Co-curricular.
- You must stay until the end of the session or event, or you will not receive credit.

Reflection:

After attending each Co-Curricular activity, you must complete a reflection. The paper is not a rehashing of the event but an analysis of the experience and how it may benefit you in the future. Prompts will be provided for each reflection.

Co-Curricular Reflections:

Instructions: Write a short reflection essay that expresses what you learned from completing the Co-Curricular. Provide an analysis of the experience and how it may benefit you in the future. Your essay should include the following for each co-curricular.

Place Reflection Prompts:

1. Discuss the reason why you selected this place. Explain the key services that are provided and how they can help you achieve academic and/or career goals. Do you foresee visiting this place in the future and would recommend it to a friend? Why or why not? What were the two most important things you learned about the place?

2. Discuss your interaction with the faculty/staff member at the place.
 - How did you feel when communicating during the session? Provide examples to support your explanation. For example, were you anxious or nervous? Did you feel comfortable? Explain why or why not.
 - How would you describe your verbal and/or nonverbal communication during the interaction?
 - Would you make any changes to your verbal and/or nonverbal communication during the interaction? Explain the changes you would make and why (if any) or why you wouldn't make any changes.

Purpose Reflection Prompts:

1. Describe the event you attended. What was the event, where did it take place, and why did you choose it?
2. How did this event contribute to the understanding of your purpose? What impact did this event have on your career and educational goals? What were the two most important things you took away from the event?
3. Reflect on your interactions with others at the event.
 - How did you feel when communicating during the session? Provide examples to support your explanation. For example, were you anxious or nervous? Did you feel comfortable? Explain why or why not.
 - How would you describe your verbal and/or nonverbal communication during the interaction?
 - Would you make any changes to your verbal and/or nonverbal communication during the interaction? Explain the changes you would make and why (if any) or why you wouldn't make any changes.

Personal Connection Reflection Questions:

1. Articulate a minimum of two things you discovered/learned about yourself through this exercise.
2. What is the importance of practicing conversations, discussions, and networking with people at different stages throughout your personal, academic, and professional life?
3. Reflect on your interactions with others at the event.
 - How did you feel when communicating during the session? Provide examples to support your explanation. For example, were you anxious or nervous? Did you feel comfortable? Explain why or why not.
 - How would you describe your verbal and/or nonverbal communication during the interaction?
 - Would you make any changes to your verbal and/or nonverbal communication during the interaction? Explain the changes you would make and why (if any) or why you wouldn't make any changes.
4. List a minimum of three action steps you can take utilizing Valencia resources that will support your development of networking, building community, understanding cultural differences in relationship in order to further your personal, academic and career goals.

Syllabus Clause and Contract:

This syllabus may be revised and adapted throughout the semester to better serve the needs of the class. The professor may assign additional reading and/or assignments as needed. Additionally, receipt of this syllabus serves as acceptance and as a binding contract, meaning you agree with the terms set forth and the expectations of them as members of the class.
