COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Prerequisites: ENC 1101 or ENC 1101H or IDH 1110. Gordon Rule course which requires college-level writing assignments, 6,000 words of writing. Minimum grade of C required if used to satisfy Gordon Rule requirement. Credit Hours: 3

This course provides an Integrated examination of dominant ideas in Western culture expressed in art, literature, music, philosophy and religion. Covers period from turn of century to present. Focuses on creative forces which have shaped contemporary consciousness from pioneering work of Einstein, Picasso, Stravinsky and Wright through dominance of objective consciousness to newly emerging guiding myths of today. Students must demonstrate college-level writing skills through multiple assignments.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Students will use their critical thinking skills to approach material covered and to make connections between it, the world today and their personal lives. In each class meeting, we will discuss the readings assigned and explore examples drawn from different areas of the humanities that illustrate the major ideas examined.

By the end of the semester, students will be able to:

- identify and explain the main movements, figures, and works of the different areas of the humanities in the twentieth century, and the context in which they emerged;
- identify and explain the dominant ideas expressed in the humanities over the course of the twentieth century;
- make meaningful connections between those ideas and their own lives; and
- explain how the big ideas expressed in the humanities influence social life, and vice versa.

VALENCIA CORE COMPETENCIES:

Think, Value, Act, and Communicate.

Think clearly, critically, and creatively, analyze, synthesize, integrate and evaluate in many domains of human inquiry; make reasoned judgments and responsible commitments; act purposefully, effectively, and responsibly; communicate with different audiences using varied means.

This course will reinforce these competencies, and through lecture and discussion, group work, and other learning activities, you will further develop your mastery of those competencies.

GENERAL POLICIES:

- All assignments must be turned in on time; late work will not be accepted, unless approved by the instructor.
- IF YOU NEED AN EXTENSION, ASK FOR ONE
- Submitting/completing the first assignment is mandatory. If you do not submit/complete the first day's assignment, it may be taken as a sign that you will not be attending the class, and you may be withdrawn. Contact the instructor if you have any issue with this requirement.

- Interrupted Quizzes or Exams: Notify the instructor IMMEDIATELY if you experience any issues during a quiz or exam. NO quiz or test will be re-opened AFTER it has expired. Take your quizzes and exams with plenty of time and anticipate technical issues.
- It is important to meet deadlines or ask for an extension if needed. Education is a right and a service you are paying for. Be aware of this! Use your time wisely and take advantage of all learning opportunities.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY:

Students are responsible for withdrawing from the course if they feel they cannot complete the requirements of the course. Students may withdraw at any time until the withdrawal deadline and receive a W. The deadline for Fall 2020 is November 13th, 2020. The instructor will only withdraw students for not completing required work in the first week, as a “no show.” Students must be aware of other important dates and deadlines.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION:

This course will be taught through a combination of readings, reading questions and assignments, Power Point slides, videos, quizzes/tests, and essays.

- * Some of the films and/or material we will examine may contain nudity and/or violence, or may deal with sensitive issues such as race, sexual identity/orientation, or gender. If you have a problem with this, talk to me immediately.
- * I would like to foster a safe caring environment even online. If you deem necessary, please let me know if you may require a trigger warning for a particular subject (no explanation necessary unless you want to share).

GRADING POLICY:

Final grade is calculated with the following:

- Module Quizzes and Discussions= 14 points
- Short Essays = 20 points (Total for both)
- Main Paper = 20 points
- Midterm = 8 points
- Final = 8 points
- Readings and Reading questions = 30 points

Total possible points: 100

90-100 points = A

80-89 points = B

70-79 points = C

60-69 points = D

59 points and below = F

Please note that the instructor DOES NOT round up the final total, so make sure you treasure each and every point

1. Module Quizzes and Discussions (14 points)

Module Quizzes: Module quizzes contain various activities and materials such as Power Point Slides and videos to help you clarify, expand, and retain knowledge and understanding from the information in the book and the reading questions and assignments. Quizzes will require you to demonstrate your understanding of the material covered through a variety of methods such as choose “best” answer, match, fill in the blank, short answers, etc.

Discussions: Students will participate in a few discussion boards throughout the semester. Although discussion forum posts don't have to be as formal as other assignments, students should still pay attention to sentence structure, spelling, grammar, punctuation etc. Express yourself as clearly as possible; you will not receive credit if I cannot understand your post.

2. Short Essays (20 points)

Students will write two short essays based on a prompt provided by the professor. Essays must follow length requirement and must use the class book as a source, and if applicable, must/can also use the additional class readings as sources. Do not use outside sources. Papers must have a clear thesis and supporting statements and must follow MLA style. The improper (or no use) of citations might be understood as plagiarism. Please cite your sources and do it correctly. In-text citations and Works Cited Page are required. Citation resources are provided on Canvas; you are also encouraged to use the writing center, and to ask questions and discuss your essay ideas with the professor and send your thesis to her. Papers must be proofread. Grammar, syntax and spelling will be graded. In these short essays, quotes should be limited to one or two. The use of multiple quotes will result in the deduction of points, as determined by the professor.

You will receive a prompt and additional guidelines for these essays; you must follow them. All papers must be submitted electronically (uploaded to Canvas) by the due date. Please note that a checklist will be provided and acknowledgement of such checklist will be required when you turn in the essay.

3. Main Paper (20 points)

Students will write a Main Paper exploring connections between a specific event/occurrence/idea and the emergence of a movement, work or idea in the humanities. Papers must ONLY use the class book and the additional class readings and materials as sources. Do not use outside sources. Papers must have a clear thesis and supporting statements and must follow MLA style. Thesis for this paper must be approved by the instructor ahead of time. The improper (or no use) of citations might be understood as plagiarism. Please cite your sources and do it correctly. In-text citations and Works Cited Page are required. Citation resources are provided on Canvas; you are also encouraged to use the writing center, and to ask questions and discuss your essay ideas with the professor. Papers must be proofread. Grammar, syntax and spelling will be graded.

You will receive a prompt and additional guidelines for these essays; you must follow them. All papers must be uploaded to Canvas by the due date. Please note that a checklist will be provided and acknowledgement of such checklist will be required when you turn in the essay.

4. Midterm and Final (8 points each)

There will be a midterm and a final. Both will be multiple choice and will aim at measuring your knowledge on the topics covered (based on the readings, assignments, videos, activities, etc.), not your memorization abilities (you must choose the best and most complete answer). Final may include essay questions for the student to reflect on the learning process and material covered.

The use of the book and internet sources is absolutely prohibited during quizzes and exams; it is also discouraged as it will only make you lose valuable time.

The unauthorized use of resources will result in earning zero points in the test and will be subject to possible academic disciplinary action.

Midterm and final should be taken during the assigned date.

Midterm and final appear in the calendar below. It is the student's responsibility to know these dates and deadlines. No makeup tests are available without explicit consent of instructor.

5. Readings and Reading Questions/assignments (30 points)

Students will have readings and Reading Questions or assignments due throughout the week. The Readings and Reading Questions will be crucial for ensuring your understanding of the historical/social context of the material covered and for gaining a general understanding of the movements, figures, ideas, and works of the different areas of the humanities studied in class.

You are expected to read and complete your assignments, fully, clearly, with detail, and on-time, and show understanding of the material by using YOUR OWN words (not just copy from the book/PDF).

To get all possible points, students must meet the requirements mentioned above and follow all instructions provided in the Modules.

Reading assignments require the use of the book and additional materials available on Canvas. You are required to use the information from the readings and assignments to answer the questions; no outside sources may be used.

Assignment must be uploaded to Canvas. Since access to the Module sections is sequential, completion of the Reading Questions is necessary in order to be able to access the rest of the Module Assignments.

Please note: In order to help you receive the highest number of points, the Reading Questions assignments do not receive individual points on Canvas. A complete/incomplete will show; you will get the overall points for all Reading Questions at the end of the semester as follows:

30 to 27 points as determined by the professor: Student submitted all Reading Questions and all work was detailed, clear, and complete (no questions were skipped or missed). All answers were correct and detailed; student showed understanding of the material by explaining and using their own words. Student incorporated feedback (if any) when required.

26 to 24 points as determined by the professor: Student submitted all Reading Questions and all work was detailed, clear, and complete (no questions were skipped or missed). All answers were correct, though they could've used more details; student showed understanding of the material by explaining and using their own words. Student incorporated feedback when required.

23 to 21 points as determined by the professor: Student submitted all Reading Questions and answered ALL questions or student missed no more than 3 assignments or received an "incomplete" in no more than 4 assignments. Some questions were skipped or missed and/or answers were correct but lacked detail and/or explanations/clarity; student did not show understanding of the material but was able to identify the answers in the reading. Student incorporated feedback when required.

20 to 18 points as determined by the professor: Student missed 4 or more assignments or received an "incomplete" in 4 to 6 assignments. Assignments skipped or missed questions and/or answers were constantly incorrect or lacked detail and/or explanations/clarity. Student did not show understanding of the material and had difficulty identifying the answers in the reading. Student did NOT incorporate feedback when required (may have received a "complete" but was given feedback and feedback was not implemented)

17 or less points depending on the number of missed assignments- Student missed more than 6 assignments OR received an "incomplete" in more than 6 assignments. Assignments constantly skipped or missed questions and/or answers were constantly incorrect or lacked detail and/or explanations/clarity. Student did not show understanding of the material and had difficulty identifying the answers in the reading. Student did NOT incorporate feedback when required (may have received a "complete" but was given feedback and feedback was not implemented).

IMPORTANT:

Due Dates: Due dates for all assignments appear on the calendar below and on Canvas. It is the student's responsibility to know these dates and to submit work on time. Please see Make-up policy, Plagiarism, and Citations for important information about assignments. Refer to Canva's schedule and announcements for updated information.

Make-Up Policy:

If you need an extension, ask for one! Foreseeing difficulties and practicing how to communicate them is an extremely practical skill for LIFE.

Extensions must be requested BEFORE the due date and are only granted if you communicate with the professor on a timely manner and the professor authorizes such work.

In conclusion: Late work is NOT accepted in this class because you may ask for an extension for any and all assignments.

Prolonged online absence: Students who are unable to participate in the course for an extended period of time due to illness, family emergency, etc. must notify the instructor as soon as possible in order to create a plan of action so that you may complete the course (if possible).

Interrupted Quizzes or Exams:

Occasionally, it happens that the internet fails, Canvas experiences an error, or your computer simply freezes. Notify the instructor IMMEDIATELY if you experience any issues during a quiz or exam. Do not wait until last minute. NO quiz or test will be re-opened AFTER it has expired.

Take your quizzes and exams with plenty of time and anticipate technical issues.

Citations and Sources:

For this class, students must demonstrate college-level writing skills through multiple assignments. It is strongly recommended that students use the school support services such as the Writing Center for help with your writing.

Citations: In this class, we will use MLA style when writing papers and assignments (if you would like to use Chicago Style, please contact me). The improper (or no use) of citations might be understood as plagiarism. Please cite your sources and do it correctly; use in-text citations as well as a Works Cited page.

Citation resources can be found in Canvas under the "Citation Information" section.

Authorized Sources:

You may ONLY use the following authorized sources for this class:

- The book,
- The PDFs on Canvas, and
- The videos and websites posted in the Modules
- NOTHING ELSE.

Any work that uses unauthorized sources will be subject to receiving ZERO points.

If you are used to using Google to complete your course work, this class is NOT for you.

- * Please do not “assume” anything. Refer to this syllabus and if you still have questions, ask me.
- * I value all of my students and want to set you all up for success. If you have issues, questions, concerns, doubts etc., talk to me! I cannot help you if I do not know what is going on. If you do not reach out to me on a timely manner, I may not be able to help you (on a timely manner means, do not reach out to me last minute).

EXPECTED STUDENT CONDUCT:

“Valencia Community College is dedicated not only to the advancement of knowledge and learning but is concerned with the development of responsible personal and social conduct. By enrolling at Valencia Community College, a student assumes the responsibility for becoming familiar with and abiding by the general rules of conduct. The primary responsibility for managing the classroom environment rests with the faculty. Students who engage in any prohibited or unlawful acts that result in disruption of a class may be directed by the faculty to leave the class. Violation of any classroom or Valencia’s rules may lead to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from Valencia. Disciplinary action could include being withdrawn from class, disciplinary warning, probation, suspension, expulsion, or other appropriate and authorized actions. You will find the Student Code of Conduct in the current Valencia Student Handbook.”

Discussion Board Etiquette:

Students are expected to use the discussion board respectfully. You may voice your own opinion without the need to use aggressive or disrespectful language. The use of profanity, personal attacks or any threats of violence is not allowed. No racist, homophobic, sexist or otherwise disrespectful comments will be tolerated. Not adhering to the discussion etiquette, may result in the loss of points and/or academic/disciplinary consequences including earning an F in the class or being withdrawn from the course.

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

All students are expected to be in complete compliance with the college policy on academic honesty as set forth in the college catalog and the student handbook. All forms of academic dishonesty are prohibited at Valencia College. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, plagiarism, cheating, furnishing false information, forgery, alteration or misuse of documents, misconduct during a testing situation, and misuse of identification with intent to defraud or deceive.

All work submitted by students is expected to be the result of the students' individual thoughts, research, and self-expression. Whenever a student uses ideas, wording, or organization from another source, the source shall be appropriately acknowledged.

Students who plagiarize material will receive zero (0) points for the assignment and may get an F as a final grade for the class, as well as be subject to Valencia's academic disciplinary action. If you plagiarize you will NOT be allowed to resubmit the assignment.

The improper (or no use) of citations might be understood as plagiarism. Please cite your sources and do it correctly. Use in-text citations as well as a Works Cited page.

For more information about plagiarism, please visit the "Plagiarism" section on Canvas.

COMPUTER/EQUIPMENT USE POLICY:

Use of computers in the Business, IT, and Public Services classrooms at Valencia Community College is restricted to those activities designated by the instructor to enhance the class materials. Any other use is strictly forbidden. Inappropriate use includes, but is not limited to:

- Use of computer to send E-mail or access Internet sites not specifically assigned in class.
- Use of computer for job, internship, homework or other activities not assigned in class.
- Modifying any hardware or software system configuration or setting.
- Activities not in accordance with the Valencia Student Code of Conduct
- Use of computers in the Business Students open lab (Bldg. 2, Room 304) is limited to those activities involved with preparing homework or coursework in the IT or Business departments and is subject to the same restriction as listed above.
- Computer use is remotely monitored; any student using computers inappropriately may be subject to dismissal from class or banishment from the lab. Subsequent offense may be sent to the campus administration for further disciplinary action.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

"Students with disabilities who qualify for academic accommodations must provide a notification from the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) and discuss specific needs with the instructor, preferably during the first two weeks of class. The Office for Students with Disabilities determines accommodations based on appropriate documentation of disabilities. The East Campus Office is located in Building 5, Room 216."

MENTAL AND PHYSICAL WELLNESS:

Valencia College cares about making sure that all students have a rewarding and successful college experience. To that purpose, Valencia students can get immediate help with issues dealing with stress, anxiety, depression, adjustment difficulties, substance abuse, time management as well as relationship problems dealing with school, home or work. BayCare Behavioral Health Student Assistance Program (SAP) services are free to all Valencia students and available 24 hours a day by calling (800) 878-5470. Free face-to-face counseling is also available in the Advising & Counseling Department.

STATEMENT OF SUPPORT FOR STUDENTS WITH FOOD/HOUSING/FINANCIAL NEEDS:

Any student who has difficulty accessing sufficient food to eat, or who lacks a safe and stable place to live, and believes this may affect his or her performance in the course, is urged to meet with a Counselor in the Advising Center for information about resources that may be available from the college or community.
