course, you are responsible for logging in and checking mail messages, announcements, and discussion messages at least once every four days.

If you are unable to participate in the course due to illness, family emergency, etc., please communicate with me as soon as possible to create a plan to complete any missed assignments so your learning can progress in your course. In the case of a prolonged online absence, please communicate with me as soon as possible to create a plan for the best course of action. Do note, sometimes the best course of action is to take a medical withdrawal and repeat the course.

Academic Honesty

All forms of academic dishonesty are prohibited at Valencia College. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, acts or attempted acts of plagiarism, cheating, furnishing false information, forgery, alteration or misuse of documents, misconduct during a testing situation, facilitating academic dishonesty, and misuse of identification with intent to defraud or deceive.

If a faculty member concludes a student in their class has violated this policy, the faculty member can choose to assign academic penalties that include, without limitation, one or more of the following: loss of credit for the assessment (assignment, examination, project, paper, etc.); a reduction in the course final grade; a grade of "F" as the final grade in the course. The faculty member may also refer the violation for action in accordance with Policy 6Hx28:8-03, Student Code of Conduct.

Plagiarism is the use of someone else's words, ideas, pictures, design, and/or intellectual property without the correct documentation and punctuation. Your professor has a no-tolerance approach to plagiarism. Students' work will be submitted to Unicheck for verification of originality. If you submit wholly or partially plagiarized work, you will be penalized for the offense. This includes reusing old work from a previous class without permission from your professor.

If you are cutting from somewhere and then pasting into your writing without

1. Quotation marks,
2. Citations, and
3. A bibliographic entry on the works cited page, then you are plagiarizing.

If you take a passage from a source, a single sentence, or more without appropriately citing the source information, you will receive an F in the course. Offering a sentence, sentences, a full paragraph(s), or even a full essay will result in an F in the course. In extreme circumstances, academic action will be taken against you. Read the Academic Dishonesty policy found in Valencia's online policy manual.

AI Usage Policy:

Regarding AI tool usage in this course, any time you use an AI tool in this class, please identify the tool, mark which portions of your work come from or have been influenced by the tool, and share how the tool enriched your learning. You will also provide your professor with the link to the AI discussion. Work submitted with AI-created or influenced portions that have not been marked and analyzed will not earn points and will put the student at risk for disciplinary inquiry.

Student Code of Conduct

Supplemental Course Policies: About This Course

Simple Syllabus

Be sure to read through the simple syllabus for information on the course including course outcomes, required materials, assessment breakdown, the online attendance policy, the academic honesty policy, and the student code of conduct. The simple syllabus is a link in the course menu tabs on the left-side of your Canvas course page.

Prerequisites:

None

Course Structure

This course is organized in units (orientation, characterization, setting and personal space, personal voice and narration, and the final portfolio).

Within each module, you will find your work broken down by weeks due with readings, discussions, writing assignments, and peer reviews due Fridays by 11:59 pm.

Within units two through five, you will complete an assignment, peer review it, and then submit a revised version to your portfolio. These unit assignments aren't worth much for the first submission because I want you to have a chance to learn from your mistakes with no penalty.

Would you prefer to submit the assignment once--for 100 points--and earn credit without feedback?

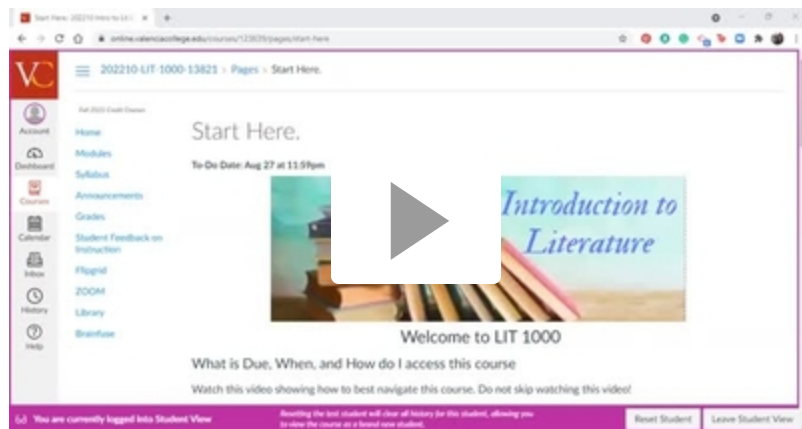

Or would you prefer to submit a first version, conduct peer reviews and receive peer and instructor feedback for 20 points, and then submit the 100-point version, earning a better score?

I want to introduce you to writing as a process, and I want you to learn from your mistakes before they're worth a lot of points.

In this course, you will experience a variety of learning activities to help you meet the course learning outcomes. To have the most meaningful learning experience, I believe your experiences matter, and it's important to connect what we learn to your "real world." This means active participation, timely submission of assignments, and ongoing dialogue are necessary for you to be successful.

On this page are important course policies to further help you participate effectively in this course.

HB 7 Disclaimer

This class requires participation in discussion to meet course learning outcomes. We are a class comprised of individuals. As such, there will be multiple opinions expressed throughout the semester that you may not personally agree with or even understand - as may be expected. My role as an instructor is to facilitate freedom of expression that is relevant to the course, credible, open and respectful without the promotion or endorsement of a single viewpoint. Conversations informed by diverse viewpoints contribute to critical thinking and higher-level learning. Even if you don't agree, listening to different points of view may give you further insight into your own perspectives. No lesson is intended to espouse, promote, advance, inculcate, compel a particular feeling, perception, viewpoint, or belief in a concept. Concepts as presented are not endorsed by the instructor but are presented as part of the larger course of instruction. Should a student feel uncomfortable with how course content is presented or discussed, please contact the instructor for further conversation.

No Show Policy

(<https://catalog.valenciacollege.edu/academicpoliciesprocedures/classattendance/>)

If you do not log in to the course during the first week and complete the Academically Required Attendance Activity, you will be withdrawn from the class as a "no show."

Attendance is required for online classes. Students who are not actively participating in an online class and/or do not submit the required attendance activity or assignment by the scheduled due date must be withdrawn by the instructor at the end of the first week as a "no show." If you are withdrawn as a "no show," you will be financially responsible for the class and a final grade of "WN" will appear on your transcript for the course. Students on financial aid will be asked to re-pay the amount of the class. Other scholarship sponsors may also require payment.

Withdrawal and Incomplete

(<https://catalog.valenciacollege.edu/academicpoliciesprocedures/courseattemptscoursewithdrawal/>)

See Important Dates (<https://valenciacollege.edu/academics/calendar/>) found on the course syllabus for deadlines (with refund or without academic penalty). A student who withdraws from class before the withdrawal deadline will receive a grade of "W." A faculty member is permitted to withdraw a student from the faculty member's class up to the beginning of the final exam period at student's request. A student is not permitted to withdraw from this class after the withdrawal deadline; if you remain in the class after the withdrawal deadline, you can only receive a grade of A, B, C, D, F or I.

An I grade (Incomplete) will only be assigned under extraordinary circumstances that occur near the end of the semester. If you receive an I, the work missed must be made up during the following semester, at which time you will get an A, B, C, D, or F. Failure to make up the work during the following semester will result in a grade of F. Any student withdrawing from this class during a third or subsequent attempt in this course will be assigned a grade of "F." International students on an F1 Visa may lose their F1 Visa due to an attendance withdrawal.

Financial Aid Notice

To academically maintain financial aid, students must meet all of the following requirements: Complete 67% of all classes attempted, and maintain a Valencia GPA (Grade Point Average) of 2.0 or higher, and Maintain an overall GPA of 2.0 or higher,

We will work together to resolve any issues that arise. See the phone number and location of the Communications Division at the top of your syllabus.

Supplemental Course Policies: Communications

Contact Your Instructor

Send me questions via the Canvas inbox. I will respond within 24-48 hours during the week, Monday through Friday, longer on weekends and holidays.

I encourage you to check your Canvas inbox, Canvas announcements, and Atlas email account regularly— at least every four days—for cancellation notices, important announcements, etc.

Want to be a most successful student? Check your messages and announcements daily! Appointments for meeting online, live via Zoom, may be made as needed, just ask. I block time out of my schedule (see online engagement hours listed on the first page of this syllabus). If you'd like to meet me during this time, send me a message via Canvas Inbox, and I'll send you a link for our meeting. If these hours do not work for you, contact me at least 24 business hours in advance, and we can see about setting up a different time to meet. We can review your writing together, discuss literature, and/or clarify questions. This is my time set up for you.

Netiquette

It is important to be aware of your behavior in an online learning environment to ensure positive interactions with your instructor and peers. This requires you to follow some guidelines for behaviors.

All students are expected to:

- Show respect for the instructor and for other students in the course
- Respect the privacy of other students
- Express differences of opinion in a polite and rational way
- Maintain an environment of constructive criticism when commenting on the work of other students
- Remain focused on the learning topics during discussions and activities

From Kent State University:

“Taking an online course and corresponding via the World Wide Web presents communicators with the task of overcoming the lack of nonverbals in communication. When taking a course online, it is important to remember several points of etiquette that will smooth communication between the students and their instructors.

1. Avoid language that may come across as strong or offensive. Language can be easily misinterpreted in written communication. If a point must be stressed, review the statement to make sure that an outsider reading it would not be offended, then post the statement. Humor and sarcasm may easily be misinterpreted as well, so try to be as matter-of-fact and professional as possible.
2. Read first, write later. It is important to read all posts or comments of students and instructors within the course discussion before personally commenting to prevent repeating commentary or asking questions that have already been answered.
3. Review, review, then send. There's no taking back a comment that has already been sent, so it is important to double-check all writing to make sure that it clearly conveys the exact intended message.
4. An online classroom is still a classroom. Though the courses may be online, appropriate classroom behavior is still mandatory. Respect for fellow classmates and the instructors is as important as ever.
5. The language of the Internet. Though still a fairly young type of communication, certain aspects of this form of communication are becoming conventional. For example, do not write using all capital letters, because it will appear as shouting. Also, the use of emoticons can be helpful when used to convey nonverbal feelings (example: :-) or :-(), but avoid overusing them.
6. No inappropriate material. Do not forward virus warnings, chain letters, jokes, etc. to classmates or instructors. The sharing of pornographic material is forbidden."

Email Etiquette

Please, clearly state your message. I want to understand what you are asking of me. I want to be able to help you with whatever trouble you are having, want to answer what questions you may have.

Send me questions via the Canvas inbox. I will respond within 24-48 hours during the week, Monday through Friday, longer on the weekends and holidays.

Expectations of Students

- Please, check your Atlas email, Canvas Inbox, and Canvas announcements regularly throughout the week, at least every four days
