COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course covers the preparation and service of hot and cold desserts with a focus on individual desserts, a la minute preparations, and numerous components within one preparation. You will learn station organization, timing, and service coordination for restaurant dessert production. Products made will include frozen desserts, ice cream, sorbet, glazes, individual plated desserts, and desserts for functions and banquets. During the course, you'll develop a dessert menu from the perspective of variety, costs, practicality, and how well it matches the rest of the menu. Credit hours: 3 Prerequisites FSS 2056 with a grade of C or better.

Course Objectives: At the end of this course the student will be able to execute how to price and plate a dessert menu in conjunction with building the desserts in the lab. They will compare and contrast station organization, timing, and service coordination for restaurant and banquet production. In building the plates, with a focus on the main ingredients, create finishing accents such as, but not limited to sauces, ice creams, sorbet and glazes.

Evaluation and Course Grading

This course is divided into four major categories , which will comprise the final grade.

- Classroom attendance 25%
- Participation : 25% - grading scale at end of syllabi
- Project or Case studies: 20% - grading scale at end of syllabi
- Progress Tests/presentations: 10%
- Final Exam: 20%

Attendance: Attendance will account for 25% of the course grade. Aside from being actively engaged in the course as described in the participation rubric, you will be graded on your attendance in the following manner:

0	absence	=100% of the attendance grade or the letter grade of A
1	absence	= 80% of the attendance grade or the letter grade of B
2	absences	= 50% of the attendance grade or the letter grade of C
3	absences	= 0% of the attendance grade or the letter grade of F and withdrawn from class.

Two partial attendance counts as an absence. A partial attendance is defined as arriving tardy or leaving early. Participation is assessed under classroom engagement. There are no excused absences in the course. Students will normally be withdrawn for failing to attend the first class session unless otherwise communicated before the beginning of class. Students will normally be withdrawn or assigned an F for the course due to excessive absences, normally viewed as 3 total.

Portfolio Project, valued at 20% of your grade
3 recipes per week X 14 weeks equal 42 recipes

Criterion– The purpose of this project is to create the opportunity for you to show this work to a chef/owner in the industry that will see the kind of work you have done. An employer/chef wants to see perfectly executed dishes that follow organizational patterns that can be recreated for consistency. This of course is a reflection of guest expectations. The more work you have even the best work you have in an organized easy to follow portfolio will say a lot about how serious you are about working in the industry. This potentially may land you the job over other people, with experience, being interviewed for the same job.

The portfolio will consist of:

- a. A 3 ring binder portfolio with tabs 5%
The weekly menu – 10%
3 significant recipes listed on the weekly menu, and will include
 - 1. Color picture from class 10%
 - 2. The yield in servings 5%
 - 3. The cooking method 5%
 - 4. The ingredients 20%
 - 5. The volume of ingredients 10%
 - 6. Procedures of preparation 25%
- b. From time to time I will ask the student to show me their progress, I will assess a grade equal to a progress test score each time based on the week we are in equal to how many recipes have been done. 10%

Tests:

The written tests will count for 30% of the grade.

The progress tests and Essay assignments on pertinent topics that presentations will be made of, count for 10% of your final grade.

The final exam will count for 20% of your final grade.

CLASSROOM POLICIES:

Make-up Exams:

Make-up exams will be given only for emergency situations provided the instructor is notified in advance. Upon your absence and its approval, the exam will be placed in the testing center.
