Course Format and Methods of Instruction:

This course is designed and delivered through learning modules in Blackboard. Each learning module contains specific information related to a general topic in Latin American history and culture. Modules contain reading and viewing material, and may contain journal papers, reflection papers, presentations, and exams related to the module content and for which students will be graded as a reflection of their mastery of course information.

Attendance Policy:

Since this is an online course, your attendance is measured by your participation in online discussions and on-time submission of assignments and exams. Your attendance during the first week of classes will be measured by your submission of the Syllabus Quiz. Throughout the course, the failure to turn in three consecutive assignments before the withdrawal deadline of November 13, 2015 will result in your being withdrawn from the course. See the full Withdrawal Policy below.

Assignment Submission/Missed assignments/Make-up:

Assignments and exams must be completed and turned in on Thursdays by 11:59pm Eastern Standard Time through Blackboard. Email submissions will only be accepted if technical issues arise with Blackboard and as placeholders to prove the assignment has been completed until the issue with Blackboard is resolved. Assignments must still be submitted to Blackboard for credit.

Assignments and exams submitted after the deadline will result in a grade of 0%. Make-up or late assignments will only be accepted under extreme or extenuating circumstances with proper documentation.

Successful completion of this course will be measured by students' abilities to do the following:

- Analyze and interpret historical and cultural events in Latin America in pre-Columbian, colonial, nation-building, revolutionary, modern, and present-day periods
- Analyze and interpret works of art, music and literature in their historical contexts of Latin America

- A microphone (built-in or external)
- Dependable access to the Internet, with up-to-date Web Browsers

College-level Writing:

Throughout the course, you will enhance and develop your abilities to write at the college level. The following tips will assist you in meeting the standards of academic writing:

- Use the spell and grammar check in Microsoft Word or other word processing program.
- Avoid overgeneralization.
- Avoid the use of colloquial language or extremely flowery (“fancy”) language.
- Avoid the use of “I”, “We”, and “You” in your writing.
- Be specific and provide concrete examples.

Original Work and Plagiarism:

Please adhere to the following guidelines regarding your original work:

- While this course does not require formal research papers, you are expected to provide the name of the author, title, and/or website for any sources you use in consultation for writing your papers.
- The papers for this course require you to use your own words as much as possible. Paraphrasing and summarizing what others say is a good practice for college-level writing, but you should indicate the ideas and original insights of others by providing the source’s author, title, and/or website.
- A good rule of thumb is that if you use more than three words in a row that come directly from a source, you should put those words in quotation marks and cite the source you use.
- Any work that does not give credit to other sources or which indicates plagiarism may result in a failing grade for the assignment, a failing grade in the course, and/or disciplinary action.

See the Student Conduct and Academic Honesty policy below for more information.

Evaluation and Grading:

- All assignments will be due on Thursdays by 11:59pm Eastern Standard Time.
- Grades posted in Blackboard are for information purposes. Final official grades will be viewable in Atlas on the date indicated by the Valencia College Academic Calendar.
- Please note that grade percentages will not be rounded up. For example, a grade of 89.9% will result in the final letter grade being reported as a B.

Letter Grade	Percentage
A	90-100%
B	80-89%
C	70-79%
D	60-69%
F	0-59%

Assignment	Percentage
Syllabus Quiz	5%
Blackboard Discussions	10%
Journals	10%
Reflection Papers	20%
Exams	20%
Cultural Presentation	15%
Final Exam	20%
Total	100%

Syllabus Quiz (5% of your grade):

In addition to 5% of your final grade, your attendance during the first week of the course will be measured by your completion of the Syllabus Quiz in Blackboard. You have unlimited attempts on this quiz to score 100% before the due date and deadline. Failure to complete the syllabus quiz by the due date and deadline will result in your being reported as “No-Show” and therefore withdrawn from the course.

Blackboard Discussions (10% of your grade):

You will complete two major discussions in Blackboard, each in two stages. The first stage is your original post. The second stage is to make substantial comments on at least two of your classmates’ posts. Your discussion posts will be evaluated on the quality of thought and attention to the details of the topic and prompt. The discussions will be graded on the content and form (grammar, vocabulary, spelling) of your original post and your comments.

Journals (10% of final grade):

You will write two journal papers based on topics studied in the course. Each journal entry must be between 250 and 350 words in length. These will be submitted in Blackboard. Failure to submit the journal by the deadline will result in a grade of 0%.

Reflection Papers (20% of final grade):

You will write two reflection papers consisting of extended, college-level reflection of themes and topics as they relate to practices, perspectives, and products of the cultural and historical contexts we study in the course. These will be submitted in Blackboard. Failure to submit the reflection papers by the deadline will result in a grade of 0%.

- 1) Reflection paper 1 will consist of 500-750 words
- 2) Reflection paper 2 will consist of 750-1000 words

Exams (20% of final grade):

You will complete two exams on content and topics presented in the readings and viewing material throughout the course. Exams consist of multiple-choice, matching, true/false, and short answer questions. Exams will be open for 72 hours, and will be due on the Thursdays listed on the calendar by 11:59pm in Blackboard. You will have one attempt on each exam. Failure to complete the exam by the deadline will result in a grade of 0%.

Study guides will be provided for the viewing and reading material as necessary. Study guides are not to be submitted for a grade. Although the study guides will not count for a grade, it is in your best interest to complete them in preparation for the exams.

Cultural Presentation (15% of final grade):

You will create one cultural presentation in order to demonstrate an understanding of how a work of art or piece of music from Latin America represents cultural and historical reality. Instructions on how to create the presentation will be provided in the module in Blackboard. Please note that you must create a narrated slideshow using your voice over a series of images. You will then convert this presentation to a YouTube format and upload the link in Blackboard. Failure to follow the instructions and or to submit your presentation on time and in Blackboard will result in a grade of 0%.

Final Exam (20% of final grade):

You will complete one comprehensive final exam at the end of the course. The exam will be open for 72 hours and will be due by the deadline listed on the calendar at 11:59pm Eastern Standard Time. Failure to complete the final exam by the deadline will result in a 0% for the exam.

Email and Communication:

- Use the “Email Professor” tool in Blackboard.
- Check your e-mail often.
- Do not use personal email accounts not affiliated with Valencia.
- I will make every effort to respond to emails within 48 hours, but often sooner.
- Be clear about what your concern or question is.
- Be courteous, considerate, and professional in all the written communication in this course. Treat emails for college as you would letters, not as you would text or chat messages.
- Please include a salutation, such as “Dear Dr. Bauer” or “Hello, Dr. Bauer”. Also include a closing with your full name. This is good practice for further academic and professional communication.
- Make every effort to be as clear as possible.
- Avoid using all caps. This is considered “shouting.”
- Check spelling, grammar, and punctuation.
