

DEH 2300
Pharmacology for Dental Hygiene
ANSWERS: Practice Quiz 3 - Part C (Anti-infective Agents and Diuretics)
May, 2014

1. What is the primary indication for Zyvox® (linezolid)?

ANSWER: See Drug Information Handbook for Dentistry by Wynn, page 827, and/or the the website below:

<http://www.rxlist.com/zyvox-drug/indications-dosage.htm>

2. The key adverse effect of Septra® DS (sulfamethoxazole-trimethoprim) related to dental treatment is stomatitis.

a. True ANSWER
b. False

3. Describe an “antabuse-like” reaction. What is the primary indication of this drug?

ANSWER: See Drug Information Handbook for Dentistry by Wynn, page 442, and/or the the website below:

<http://www.rxlist.com/antabuse-drug/patient-images-side-effects.htm#important>

4. Vibramycin® (doxycycline) has proven to be ineffective in the treatment of periodontitis and is no longer used in the management of this dental problem.

a. True
b. False ANSWER

5. What is the DOC (drug of choice) for treating pulmonary edema?

ANSWER: Lasix® (furosemide)