

ANSWERS: Practice Quiz # 5 - Part C

Analgesics

DEH 2300

June, 2014

The following questions were written from:

Wynn, Richard L., et. al. Drug Information Handbook for Dentistry, pages 1558-1561 and 1606-1608.

1. Which medication is recommended for mild oral pain?
 - a. Tylenol® (acetaminophen) ANSWER
 - b. ASA® with Codeine
 - c. Lortabs® (hydrocodone 2.5 mg and APAP 500 mg)
 - d. Demerol® (meperidine)

2. One tablet of ASA No. 3 contains:
Aspirin 325 mg and codeine 30 mg

3. Hydrocodone oral products containing aspirin, acetaminophen or ibuprofen are classified as DEA Schedule _____ and orders may be oral or written.
 - a. I
 - b. II
 - c. III ANSWER
 - d. IV

4. Which analgesic is not likely to relieve severe oral pain?
 - a. Tylenol # 3® (acetaminophen and codeine)
 - b. Tylenol ES ANSWER
 - c. Vicodin® (hydrocodone and acetaminophen)
 - d. Oxycodone

5. What is APAP?
ANSWER: acetaminophen

6. What is Tylenol “ES”?
ANSWER: “Extra Strength” = 500 mg