

ANSWERS - Practice Quiz 5 Part F
Urinary Analgesic: Pyridium
DEH 2300 - June, 2014

1. Pyridium® (phenazopyridine) contains anti-infective agents appropriate for treating common urinary tract infections.
- a. True
 - b. False ANSWER

2. List side effects to Pyridium® (phenazopyridine).

ANSWER: bright orange or reddish orange urine, orange body secretions (depending upon reference), nausea, abdominal pain, headache, dizziness, hepatic toxicity, rash, liver damage, hemolytic anemia

3. What is the classification of Pyridium® (phenazopyridine)?
- a. Urinary antiseptic
 - b. Urinary analgesic ANSWER
 - c. Potent loop diuretic
 - d. Anti-urolithiasis agent

4. Bright orange urine is often listed as a side/adverse effect of Pyridium® (phenazopyridine) but is actually an expected occurrence when taking this drug.
- a. True ANSWER
 - b. False

5. Because Pyridium® (phenazopyridine) has only local action there are no serious adverse reactions to this drug.
- a. True
 - b. False ANSWER