All dates are subject to change.

Recommended allocated time for this course: As students, you are encouraged to learn to manage your time wisely. What does this mean regarding this class? Since it is a 4-credit hour class, you should multiply 4 times 4 which is equal to 16 hours of study time per week for this course. This means that if you divide 16 (hours) by 7 (days of the week), you are expected to study and work in this class for at least 2.5 hours daily. Out of those 2.5 hours, at least 20 minutes should be devoted to studying and memorizing vocabulary daily.

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

SPN 1120 and SPN 1121 are designed for students without two years of recent high school Spanish completed within the last three years. The class will emphasize the everyday use of the language, integrating basic grammar, vocabulary, composition, and culture through a conversational approach to Spanish. This class is not open to native or heritage speakers. Please see the definition of Native and Heritage Speakers under the Native Speaker and Heritage Learners heading of this syllabus. A minimum grade of ‘C’ is required if being used to satisfy the General Education Foreign Language proficiency. Four credits will be earned upon successful completion of this course.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

The objective of this course is for students to achieve a novice level of proficiency in the target language (in writing, speaking, reading, and listening) as well as awareness of the Hispanic culture. In addition to competencies at the end of the semester, you will be expected to be able to use the target language at an intermediate-novice level.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

The student will be able to communicate verbally and orthographically in the target language at an intermediate/mid-level according to the American Council of Teaching of Foreign Languages (ACTFL) as well as develop listening and reading skills in the target language at an intermediate/mid-level proficiency according to ACTFL. Furthermore, students will develop a mature attitude toward cultural differences.

NO-SHOW POLICY:

Class attendance is required beginning with the first day of class. If you do not attend the first class meeting and/or complete the entire Orientation Module including all of the assignments, quizzes, and discussion, you may be withdrawn from the class as a “No-Show”. Class attendance is required for all modalities including online, mixed-mode, and face-to-face classes; students who are not actively participating in class and/or do not submit the required attendance activities and assignments by the scheduled due date will be withdrawn by the instructor at the end of the first week as a “No-Show”. If you are withdrawn as a “No-Show”, you will be financially responsible for the class, and a final grade of “WN” will appear on your transcript for the course. If you begin the class and decide not to continue, you will need to withdraw yourself by the withdrawal deadline or earn an “F” in the course.

WITHDRAWAL POLICY:

- Per Valencia Policy 4-07 (Academic Progress, Course Attendance, Grades, and Withdrawals), a student who withdraws from class before the established deadline for a particular term will receive a grade of ‘W’.
- A student may withdraw at any time during the term in Atlas up until the withdrawal deadline (‘W’ Grade) which is by the following date:
October 27th, 2023 by 11:59 PM. All dates are subject to change. Please check the following link for updates on all important dates: Valencia College Academic Calendar
- After the withdrawal deadline, students can no longer withdraw themselves, and the professor cannot withdraw the student either.
- Students knowing that they are not going to pass the course and stop coming to class will receive an ‘F’ for the course unless they withdraw themselves before the withdrawal date mentioned above.
- Withdrawing from a course is the student’s decision. The Professor may recommend either dropping or staying in the course however these recommendations by no means guarantee a passing or prevent receiving a failing grade.
- The Professor will not withdraw a student at any time. This is true even if a Valencia or UCF advisor says that I can withdraw you, I actually cannot.
- If you have a medical condition/emergency, please contact your Valencia or UCF advisor and/or counselor to have him or her help you look into the possibility of obtaining a medical withdrawal from the course.

- The last day to Drop/Refund is the following date:
August 28th, 2023 by 11:59 PM. All dates are subject to change. Please check the following link for updates on all important dates: Valencia College Academic Calendar

NATIVE SPEAKERS AND HERITAGE LEARNERS:

SPN 1120 (Elementary Spanish I), SPN 1121 (Elementary Spanish II), SPN 1000 (Conversational Spanish I), and SPN 1001 (Conversational Spanish II) are classes specifically designed for non-native speakers or non-heritage learners. If you are a native speaker or heritage learner, this class is not designed for you.

All students are required to take a Heritage Placement Exam as soon as the course opens and upload their results to the assignment page.

A native speaker is one who was born and raised in a Spanish-speaking country and has studied the language formerly in elementary school and/or high school in a Spanish-speaking country.

A heritage learner could also be someone who was born in the United States or moved to the United States from a Spanish-speaking country at a very young age, has never formally studied the language, but speaks (or at one time spoke) Spanish at home. A heritage learner can communicate orally with a limited vocabulary but has not fully developed writing or reading skills. In addition, proper sentence formation, correct grammatical usage, and good pronunciation are usually lacking in their conversation.

In short, “a student who is raised in a home where a non-English language is spoken, who speaks or merely understands the heritage language and who is to some degree bilingual in English and the Heritage language” (Valdes, 2000). If you are a native speaker, this class is not designed for you. It is strongly encouraged that you take another language class such as Portuguese, French, German, or Latin.

Another option is to take the CLEP (College Level Examination Program) Test which awards college credit for demonstrating achievement in a subject through a computer-based exam. Below is the link for more information on the CLEP Test:

Valencia College Assessments - CLEP

Another alternative if you are a Heritage learner is enrolling in a course that Valencia has created that will count as Foreign Language credit. These courses are called Spanish for Heritage Speakers I and II (SPN 1340 and SPN 1341). These classes are designed for students who have some level of fluency but wish to become more fluent, become better readers in Spanish, and become better at expressing themselves orally and in written form in Spanish all while improving their vocabulary and grammar. SPN 1340 and SPN 1341 classes are now usually offered throughout the entire academic year.

To both Native Speakers and Heritage Learners: You are strongly encouraged to drop this course. If you do not and it is discovered later on that you are indeed a Heritage Learner, it will leave you little or no time to register for another course or take the CLEP. For Elementary language courses, we don't allow students to use any elements of the language that we are not specifically learning in the class. Why is this?

Because this is a good indication that somebody else is doing their work for them or that they are using an online translator. If this happens, they receive a very low grade or a zero. For students that have some level of fluency either Native speakers or Heritage learners, they will inevitably use elements of the language that are not in our learning parameters. These students can also receive a low grade or a zero in this course. As a result, to get a good grade, Native speakers and Heritage Learners feel forced to use a level of the language that is lower than their level of proficiency. This leads to no real and productive learning taking place. For this reason, we offer many other languages, including Spanish for Heritage Speakers courses, or the CLEP Test options.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION:

The course will be taught through a combination of written homework assignments, Canvas discussions, and various video assignments. Face-to-face and mixed-mode classes will include in-class presentations.

CANVAS AND VHL ARE REQUIRED:

This Spanish course will utilize two websites, Canvas, and the VHL Central Supersite. We will be using Valencia College's Canvas website for grades, Canvas assignments, Canvas graded assessments, etc. We will also be using the textbook publisher's website Vista Higher Learning (VHL Central Supersite), for VHL homework, some VHL formative practice assessments, as well as cultural activities. - Participating in various Canvas Discussions Boards
- Completing Canvas presentations
- Checking Canvas-specific assignment due dates
- Completing various other Canvas assignments
- Accessing extra materials such as Pages, worksheets, PowerPoints, useful YouTube videos, and other helpful links throughout each chapter module within Canvas
- Communicating between Professor and student through the Canvas messaging system

You will be using the VHL Central Supersite for the following:

- Viewing VHL tutorials
- Seeing VHL Supersite weekly assignments and their due dates
- Completing VHL Supersite activities including some formative practice quizzes/tests

When you purchase the Portales textbook from the Valencia Bookstore, you will receive an access code that will allow you to gain access to the VHL Supersite.

Reminder: If you purchase the book online from an outside vendor such as Amazon, you are not guaranteed to receive a valid and/or active online access code that is required for this course.

SPEAKING ASSESSMENTS USING FLIP:

1) Language skills using Flip formerly known as Flipgrid for Discussions – For each Chapter, you will be asked to post a short video where you will ask a question in Spanish and/or share something brief related to the communicative goals of each chapter. You will then be asked to respond by posting a short video to at least two of your classmates' posts. Make sure you read the instructions for each Flip discussion activity. By clicking on the assignment, it will take you there automatically. You are encouraged to use props and visuals!

2) Language skills using Flip for Presentations - You will be asked to do presentations in this course and post them on Flip. Once again, by clicking on the assignment, it will take you there automatically. These presentations must comply with the minimum time requirement. You are encouraged to use visuals/props to enhance your presentation. For example, if you are saying that you like to play soccer, hold up a soccer ball.

Warning: Only use grammar and vocabulary that we are learning in class. Do not use advanced grammar and vocabulary. Failing to do so will result in a very low grade or perhaps a zero, at the professor's discretion.

CULTURAL DISCUSSIONS:

When covering Culture, we will discuss cultural topics related to the Spanish-speaking world including its various Native cultures. These will be done mostly in English, but are encouraged to use Spanish terms whenever possible or applicable. You must submit an initial post with intelligently and well-thought-out comments, then respectfully and intelligently respond to at least two other posts to receive full credit. You will receive full credit if you write an original post plus include your responses to at least two classmates' posts.

PRACTICE QUIZZES:

Practice Quizzes are assigned 3-4 times throughout the chapter. They are short quizzes that vary between fill-in-the-blank and multiple-choice, etc. Their purpose is to make sure you are learning and understanding the material. You will have 3 attempts and there is no time limit on most of the Practice Quizzes.

WRITING ASSIGNMENTS:

Writing Assignments (Journals) are done in Canvas. These are essentially practice writing assignments in which you will write on various topics. You are expected to use the material, grammar, vocabulary, and sentence structure that we are learning in class. Any work that uses the Spanish language that is beyond our scope of learning will receive a zero. This includes using verb tenses that we have not yet learned for each of the chapters and or any type of AI technology.

HOMWORK IN VHL CENTRAL SUPERSITE:

The VHL Central Supersite can be found at VHL Central. This is the online component of the textbook where you will do many of the activities of the course and keep track of your VHL Homework grades. The assigned activities will be listed on the calendar of the VHL website. The activities will include extensive grammar-driven practice, vocabulary practice, listening practice, oral communication activities, reading activities, as well as activities to develop your oral and writing proficiency. These activities will assist the student in internalizing the material they have learned. The VHL Homework will be completed on the dates that appear on the calendar at VHL Central. There will be homework most days of the week. This is to ensure that you are staying in touch with the course daily thereby being exposed to the target language every week. It is essential to have daily contact and interaction with the Spanish language to have the most immersive experience.

REGARDING CANVAS AND VHL:

- The Professor will not remind you every day to do your homework on both Canvas and VHL.
- Please be sure to complete all Canvas and VH assignments on time. It is highly recommended that you complete all of the homework and activities in each chapter module before taking each chapter test.
- Late assignments are subject to a 20% deduction on top of any other deductions due to grammatical and/or context errors.
- Although you may submit assignments late due to a medical emergency, do not get into the habit of turning in late work. With a language class, it is best to stay on track for more effective learning of the target language.
- Please be responsible and manage your time wisely.
- Make sure you have a working computer with a camera, headphones, and a microphone. Remember, there are computer labs at all Valencia Campuses which are available to students (bring your headphones).
- Please read the instructions for all homework activities on both Canvas and VHL carefully.

QUIZLET FOR VOCABULARY:

- Towards the beginning of each chapter module, there is a Quizlet activity that involves inputting all vocabulary words into Quizlet.com and creating flashcards which you will use to study and memorize your Spanish vocabulary words from each chapter for at least 20 minutes daily. Successful students say that they find that memorizing vocabulary makes learning grammar much more effective. When you learn vocabulary words and then incorporate that new vocabulary into your new grammar lessons, then you can use your knowledge to your advantage.

SPANISH PRONUNCIATION ASSESSMENTS:

- You will have the opportunity to practice and showcase your Spanish pronunciation through a Discussion Board in which you will practice reciting a tongue twister three times in a row.
- I highly encourage listening to the original tongue twister several times before attempting to record yourself.
- Try your best to imitate the sounds and pronunciation of each word from my original recordings so that you may achieve a native sound in Spanish.
- I recommend that you write out the tongue twister several times in a notebook because when you take the time to write it out with pen and paper, you get the opportunity to see the way each word is constructed in terms of accents, diphthongs, and letter combinations.
- Take it a step further and try to memorize the tongue twister you choose to record.

INFORMATION GAP ASSIGNMENTS:

- Information Gap Assignments are activities that you will complete with a classmate and/or a Valencia or Brainfuse tutor.
- Please be sure to follow the instructions within this Canvas activity carefully.
- Always follow the examples given in each Information Gap Activity.

TUTORING:

There are two options for tutoring opportunities within each chapter module with suggestions on what subjects to focus on for each chapter.

MIDTERM AND FINAL ORAL ASSESSMENTS:

- The Midterm Oral Assessments will be given after Chapter 3 (SPN 1120) or Chapter 8 (SPN 1121) via Canvas Quiz using Honorlock.
- The Final Oral Assessment will be given after Chapter 4 (SPN 1120) or Chapter 9 (SPN 1121) via Canvas Quiz using Honorlock.
- The Professor will ask you questions based on what we have learned in class. Sample questions can be found in the Midterm Oral Assessment Module and the Final Oral Assessment Module.
- Be prepared to video record yourself during the Oral Assessments.

FINAL EXAM:

- The Final Exam will cover chapters 1-5 for SPN 1120 and chapters 6-10 for SPN 1121. The Final Exam is composed of 3 parts;
 - 1) The Main part consists of vocabulary, listening, reading, and grammar
 - 2) The Writing sections
 - 3) The Final Oral Assessment via Canvas Quiz (this assessment is completed in advance)
- Students who do not take all 3 components of the Final Exam will not pass.
- The Final Exam does not have to be taken in the Testing Center.
- If there is any indication whatsoever that someone else is taking the exam for you, you will receive a zero for the exam. Indications include advanced vocabulary, advanced sentence structure, advanced verbal usage, slang, and common errors made by native speakers. Using any type of AI technology is considered plagiarism and is prohibited.
- The "Main" part and the "Writing" portion of the Final Exam will be available during Final Exam week.
- The Final Oral Assessment will be done a couple of weeks before the Final Exam Week. The Professor will ask you questions based on what we have learned in class. Sample questions can be found in the Final Oral Assessment Module. Remember that the Oral Assessments will be completed via Canvas Quizzes using Honorlock.

LATE WORK:

Although you may submit late assignments on Canvas due to medical emergencies, do not get into the habit of turning in late work. With a language class, it is best to stay on track for more effective learning of the target language. Without a valid medical excuse, late assignments on Canvas are subject to a 20% deduction per late submission. There are no penalties for late assignments on VHL, but it is best to turn in all assignments on time. This includes both VHL and Canvas assignments.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION:

Attendance and Participation in all course modalities (face-to-face/mixed mode/online/RTV) are strictly recorded and graded. Please let the professor know ahead of time if you will be absent and/or not participating. The only way to get a valid excused absence is to provide a medical excuse with the date(s). Unless you are medically excused, if you arrive late to an onsite class and/or if you leave class early it will be counted as a tardy in your Attendance grade for that day.

A reminder of Recommended allocated time for this course: As students, you are encouraged to learn to manage your time wisely. What does this mean regarding this class? Since it is a 4-credit hour class, you should multiply 4 times 4 which is equal to 16 hours of study time per week for this course. This means that if you divide 16 (hours) by 7 (days of the week), you are expected to study and work in this class for at least 2.5 hours daily. Out of those 2.5 hours, at least 20 minutes should be devoted to studying and memorizing vocabulary daily.

ACADEMIC HONESTY:

Student Conduct and Academic Honesty: Each student is required to follow Valencia's policy regarding academic honesty. All work submitted by students is expected to be the result of the student's thoughts, research, and self-expression unless the assignment specifically states "group project". Any act of academic dishonesty will be handled following Valencia policy as outlined in the Student Handbook and Catalog.

VCC Expected student conduct: 10-03 Student Code of Conduct.

Specific Authority: 1006.60, FS. Law Implemented: 1006.60, FS.

Valencia College is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge and learning, and the development of responsible personal and social conduct. By enrolling at Valencia, a student assumes the responsibility for knowing and abiding by the rules of appropriate behavior as articulated in the Student Code of Conduct. The primary responsibility for managing the classroom environment rests with the faculty. Faculty may direct students who engage in inappropriate behavior that results in disruption of a class to leave the class. Such students may be subject to other disciplinary action which may include a warning, withdrawal from class, probation, suspension, or expulsion from the College. Please read the Student Code of Conduct in the current Valencia Student Handbook.

Exams and homework are considered individual efforts. Any submissions that are too similar for coincidence will receive no credit. Any submission that appears to have been done by somebody else (i.e., a native speaker, Google translate, or any AI technology) will be considered plagiarism and will receive no credit.

Students may collaborate in group assignments. Collaboration should be used to edit or clarify doubts. Any students involved in incidents of cheating or plagiarism will be given a zero. Each student is expected to be in complete compliance with the College policy on Academic Honesty as outlined in the Admissions Catalog and the Student Handbook. Any student(s) cheating on an exam will receive a zero on the exam. This zero cannot be replaced with the exam's final score. It is up to Professor's discretion to give an 'F' as a Final Grade.

PLAGIARISM:

Guidelines to prevent copying from native speakers, online translators, and/or AI technology.

This course only allows content that pertains to the class.

If it is suspected that you are using an online translator or AI technology, or that a native or heritage speaker is doing your work for you, you will receive a zero on your assignment. It is worthwhile to mention that it is evident to the Professor when you are not doing your work. This is especially true in your writing assignments and short-answer assignments. The use of verb tenses that we are not learning, sentence structure that we are not learning, slang, and advanced vocabulary are prohibited. Only use what we are doing in class. In doing so, the Professor can be fairly certain that you are doing your work. The aforementioned statement refers to exams and other assessments as well.

Regarding AI technology:

The use of AI-generated responses and essays is strictly prohibited in this course unless otherwise explicitly approved by your instructor. AI includes "any kind of artificial computational system that employs complex behavior used to satisfy the Learning Outcomes of a course or lesson" (Vincent C. Muller). ChatGPT, for instance, is an AI. Any assignment in violation of this policy will receive the punishments as specified in the Academic Dishonesty/Plagiarism policy.

Students are encouraged to use the 24/7 Canvas Help located inside Canvas by clicking on the “Help” icon.

To get started using the Distance Tutoring and Learning Technology Support services, please visit Distance Tutoring & Learning Technology Support. Through this site, you can view the schedule of tutors/tech support assistants, and find available times.

STUDENT ILLNESS:

If you are unable to participate in the course due to illness, family emergency, etc., please communicate with me as soon as possible to create a plan to complete any missed assignments so that your learning can progress in your course. In the case of a prolonged absence, please communicate with me as soon as possible to create a plan for the best course of action.

HOUSE BILL 233:

As your professor, I am committed to giving you as many opportunities and resources to support your learning as possible. Therefore, you may find it beneficial to record class lectures to review later. Please keep in mind that you do not have your peers’ permission to record them, and they have a right to privacy; your peers should not be in your recordings. You may not record class discussions, student presentations, labs, group work, and private conversations. These recordings are permitted for your personal use; you should contact me to discuss sharing options. Note that while these recordings are useful for review, we want you to attend the class for your insights and questions; these recordings are not substitutes for class participation and attendance. Should you have any concerns or questions, please feel free to contact me through Atlas email or Canvas message.

HOUSE BILL 7:

This class requires participation in discussion to meet course learning outcomes. We are a class comprised of individuals. As such, there will be multiple opinions expressed throughout the semester that you may not personally agree with or even understand - as may be expected. My role as an instructor is to facilitate freedom of expression that is relevant to the course, credible, open, and respectful without the promotion or endorsement of a single viewpoint. Conversations informed by diverse viewpoints contribute to critical thinking and higher-level learning. Even if you don't agree, listening to different points of view may give you further insight into your perspectives. No lesson is intended to espouse, promote, advance, inculcate, or compel a particular feeling, perception, viewpoint, or belief in a concept. Concepts, as presented, are not endorsed by the instructor but are presented as part of the larger course of instruction. Should a student feel uncomfortable with how course content is presented or discussed, please contact the instructor for further conversation.
