Course Syllabus

Course Name: Freshman Composition II Course ID/Section: ENC 1102 - 22373

Term/Year: Spring 2025

Modality: Online Length of Term: Full

Credit Hours:3

CONTACT INFORMATION

Professor: Vincent F. A. Golphin, Ph.D. Email: vgolphin@valenciacollege.edu

Phone/Text:585-415-6196

Use GroupMe for chats and instant communication ⇒ (https://groupme.com/join_group/105151067/hGzJPPtH). Check the Week One module.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Freshman Composition II (ENC 1102) is a Gordon Rule course in which challenges participants to demonstrate college-level analytical, reading and writing skills through multiple essay assignments. The final project is to plan, write and document a 750- to 1,500-word, researched, comparative analysis of two short story themes. The task demonstrates the writing style, use of library, reading and the evaluation of available sources. A minimum C grade is required to satisfy Gordon Rule and general education requirements.

Prerequisites: Freshman Composition I(ENC1101 or 1101H) with minimum grade of C.

IMPORTANT DATES

Start Date: Jan. 6, 2025 End Date: April 27, 2025

Spring Break: March 17 - 23

GENERAL COURSE OUTLINE

- Along with other changes this semester, some elements in the general outline might lead to confusion. The main assignments and course activities are laid out by the week in the modules on Canvas.
- Each week will open on Sunday. The topics are listed below, but videos, readings and exercises are omitted.
- Be sure to check the Announcements on Canvas. Assignments might change as needed.
- The weekly tasks are to be completed at 11:59 p.m. on the following Saturday.
- Incomplete assignments (missed deadlines) are marked as absences and receive a zero in the gradebook.

Week One (Jan. 6 - 11): Introduction, Course Rules and Policies

• Check full tasks and assignments in the Canvas module.

- Set up GroupMe and introduce yourself to classmates.
- · Read "Policies"
- · Read "Grades"
- Complete Scavenger Hunt
- Participate in Discussion: "Should College Students Write Through AI?"

Week Two (Jan. 13 - 18): Introduction to Writing Literary Arguments

- Read "Close Reading" and "Passage Analysis Essays" from The Wiley Guide to Writing Essays about Literature.
- Read Amy Tan's, "Fish Cheeks."
- Use the techniques of close reading and passage analysis focus on the second to the last paragraph in the memoir.
- In 500 words, explain how that section and other parts of the story crystallize the author's message.

Week Three (Jan. 20 - 25): How to Understand Short Fiction

Reconsider what you wrote about Amy Tan's memoir, "Fish Cheeks". But first:

- As a constant reference, check out the MLA Guide for Essay.

 (https://owl.purdue.edu/owl/research and citation/mla style/mla formatting and style guide/mla sample paper.html)
- Read Note-taking and Responses. Download Note-taking and Responses.
- Check out educator Lisa Tran's straightforward suggestions on How to Better Understand Readings. → (https://youtu.be/RBbiPOTuoXI)

(https://youtu.be/RBbiPOTuoXI)

[3:04].

Educator Amy E. Harter talks about how to "mine" stories for deeper meaning in this TED talk(Links to an external site.) → (https://youtu.be/eREopphW5Bw)

(https://youtu.be/eREopphW5Bw)

[4:11].

- Re-read the story with a focus on the required passage, then revise the first draft.
- Place the finished product in the Response Final folder.

If you want to get ahead:

The Final Project, due by 11:59 p.m., on April 23, is to write a 750- to 1500-word essay that contrasts and compares the way the authors develop a common theme. The stories must be from the Valencia Reader.

(https://libguides.valenciacollege.edu/c.php?g=359005&p=2423548) The plan for your project must be approved before a first draft can be submitted.

Use the Final Project form as a guide to organize the formal presentation.

Submit the project plan in the Project Description folder for approval before 11:59 p.m., on Nov. March 15. Once approved, the professor will offer feedback on the plan and set a meeting to discuss the first draft.

Week Four (Jan. 27 -Feb. 1): How to Understand and Write About Characters

Here is the Assignment:

Learn from this video how to tell
 "Different Types of Characters in Literature..

 (https://youtu.be/Lfs53c7axWk)

(https://youtu.be/Lfs53c7axWk)

" [5:00]

(https://youtu.be/_ofMa7c7wHg)

. {3:47]

Watch this quick guide on
 How to Analyze a Short Story Character [4:05]Links to an external site. ⇒ (https://youtu.be/3daaB08DhmE)

(https://youtu.be/3daaB08DhmE)

- Read, "The Border Beat, 1921," from Alicia Gaspar de Alba's Crimes of the Tongue.
- Write a 750-word Character Draft analysis.
- Consider how Alberto Morales reflects Mexican Americans in his time.
- What does the author want to convey about the American dream?

- Is the Alberto a reliable narrator?
- What role does the unusual Mexican worker play in the story?
- Provide evidence to support the argument (thesis) from the text.
- Submit a draft in the shared folder.

As a constant reference, check out the MLA Guide for Essay Formats. (https://style.mla.org/formatting-papers/)

Week Five (Feb. 3 - 8): Analysis of Characters

Research is a key to add depth to a Character analysis. Consider Elizabeth Garner Masarik's background on Mexican immigration. (https://digpodcast.org/2017/04/09/2621/) before your revise the Character Analysis. If you did not look for such information, you should have. It will help you to gain better grasp on the characters and issues at stake in the story.

Complete these tasks:

- Gather feedback from the professor to revise the essay draft.
- Either listen or read the feedback on the first draft or make a discussion appointment with the professor.
- Revise the Character Analysis essay.
- Submit the final draft in the shared folder.

As a constant reference, check out the MLA Guide for Essay Formats. (https://style.mla.org/formatting-papers/)

Week Six (Feb. 10 - 15): Writing Arguments About Plot

- Check the Canvas module for full tasks and assignments.
- Revise the Character Analysis by .

Week Seven (Feb. 17 - 22): How to Make Use of Plots

- Learn about "Seven Types of Narrative Structure". ⇒ (https://blog.reedsy.com/guide/story-structure/) from the Reedsy Blog.
- Read Alice Walker's "Everyday Use".
- Write a 500- to 750-word final draft essay that explains, "What plot elements Alice Walker uses to define the main character in, "Everyday Use?"

Week Eight (Feb. 24 - March 1): Understanding and Writing About Themes

- Check the Canvas module for full tasks and assignments.
- When asked about a story's theme, many people recount what happens in the tale. This is the beginning of our exploration of themes. Let's start with this video. ⇒ (https://youtu.be/rluKNVny9cM)

After that dynamic presentation on the nature of a theme in a story, check out a more detailed analysis from LiteraryTerms.net (https://literaryterms.net/theme/)

Assignments:

- Read Walter Mosley's complex tale of fates and futures, "The Sin of Dreams".
- Write a 750- word first draft analysis on an evident theme. Make sure to:
 - State the theme.
 - Explain with quotes from specific passages that show how the author uses the text to push the message.
 - Include comments on your reaction to the story.

Week Nine (March 3 - 8): A Last Word on Themes

- Gain feedback from the professor and complete the essay's final draft.
- If needed, make an appointment through GroupMe.
- Revise the draft on Walter Mosley's complex tale, "The Sin of Dreams".
- Make sure to:
 - State the theme (Argument).
 - Explain with quotes from specific passages how the author uses the text to push the message.
 - Include comments on your reaction to the story.

Week Ten (March 10 - 15): Final Project Description Approval

The Final Project, due by 11:59 p.m., on April 23, is to write a 750- to 1500-word essay that contrasts and compares the way the authors develop a common theme. The stories must be from the Valencia Reader.

(https://libguides.valenciacollege.edu/c.php?g=359005&p=2423548) The plan for your project must be approved before a first draft can be submitted.

Use the Final Project form as a guide to organize the formal presentation.

Submit the project plan in the Project Description folder for approval before 11:59 p.m., on March 15. Once approved, the professor will offer feedback on the plan and set a meeting to discuss the first draft.

Week Eleven (March 17 - 23): Spring Break

Week Twelve (March 24 - 29): The Research Process

• Despite the goal of the Final Project - to contrast two authors' approaches to a single theme in their short stories - the research process is key to depth in an essay. This week will explore elements in that process for the Final Project and other assignments. Check the Canvas module for links to the full tasks and assignments.

Week Thirteen (March 31 - April 5): First Steps Toward the Final Project

- Feedback continues on Final Project Descriptions.
- Once the description is approved, get ahead by working on a Final Project first draft.
- Write a 750- to 1500-word essay that contrasts and compares the way the two short story authors develop a common theme.
- The stories must be from the Valencia Reader. (https://libguides.valenciacollege.edu/c.php?g=359005&p=2423548)
- Stories used in the course assignments are not eligible.

Week Fourteen (April 7 - 12): Final Project Description Feedback

• The first Final Project draft is due after 11:59pm on April 5. The timing depends on the proposal approval. Submission of the first draft is similar to other drafts, however some students choose to go without feedback. The draft essay offers an opportunity to gain feedback.

Week Fifteen (April 14 - 19): Final Project Meetings

- Once the description is approved, get ahead by working on a Final Project first draft.
- Write a 750- to 1500-word essay that contrasts and compares the way the two short story authors develop a common theme.

Week Sixteen (April 21-23) Submit the Final Project authors develop a common theme.

• The Final Project, due by 11:59 p.m. on April 23. No extensions or incompletes will be granted. Those who do not submit the final assignment will likely fail the course.

EVALUATION POLICIES

General essay grade criteria:

The A paper meets or exceeds the assignment requirements, and has few grammatical errors. The assignment is in the Modern Language Association style and format (https://style.mla.org/mla-format/) to meet college-level standards of correctness and clarity. Its topic is focused and clearly defined. Its thesis is precisely and elegantly stated. The structure of the paper obviously and carefully supports the thesis. The paper's organizational strategy is designed to progress logically between points of support. Each paragraph is coherent within itself and helps

Final Grade

Participation (15%)

Essays (60%)

Final Project (25%)

COLLEGE POLICIES

Nettiquette

- In an online educational environment, you are expected to work independently at your pace.
- In discussions (Zoom sessions) you must behave as if in a classroom.
 - Respect the professor and for other students.
 - Respect everyone's privacy.
 - Be polite and rational in an expression of opinion.
 - Write constructive and sensitive criticism of others' essays.
 - Avoid irrelevant topics in discussions or other activities.
 - No threats, harassment or offensiveness in GroupMe messages or chats.
 - No UPPERCASE in messages IT IS THE EQUIVALENT OF SHOUTING!!!

To ensure positive interactions with the instructor and peers heed those guidelines. Serious violations could cause dismissal from the course.

Attendance

- Class attendance is required for online classes.
- If you do not actively participate in an online session or fail to submit the required attendance activity or assignment by the scheduled during the first week, the professor will report you a "no show."
- If withdrawn as a "no show," you will be financially responsible for the class.
- A final grade of "WN" will appear on your course transcript.
- A might also be withdrawn for lack of attendance.
- Online, the completion of each week's tasks notes your participation or attendance.
- In the event of an extended absence or need to miss a deadline, contact or write the professor to indicate the reason through GroupMe, email or phone before it occurs.
- The professor will contact a student with an unexcused absence for more than seven consecutive days.
- If there is no communication within 48 hours, the student might be involuntarily withdrawn.
- After the Valencia withdrawal deadline, unexcused students will receive the earned grade.
- A student withdrawn by faculty for violation of the class attendance policy receives a "W".
- If you do not intend to complete the course, please withdraw prior to the deadline. After the deadline, the professor cannot withdraw a student.
- The student who failed to withdraw will receive whatever grade is earned.
- A student who withdraws or is withdrawn from a class during a third or subsequent attempt in the same course will be assigned a grade of "F."

Student Conduct

Valencia is dedicated to the advancement of knowledge and learning, and the development of responsible personal and social conduct. As a registered student, you assume the responsibility to conduct yourself in a manner that contributes positively to Valencia's learning community and that does not impair, interfere with, or obstruct the orderly conduct, processes, and functions of the college as described in the Student Code of Conduct

Academic Honesty

Academic dishonesty is strongly forbidden. That includes, but is not limited to, acts or attempted acts of plagiarism, cheating, furnishing false information, forgery, alteration or misuse of documents, misconduct during a testing situation, facilitating academic dishonesty, and misuse of identification with intent to defraud or deceive.

- All work submitted by students is expected to be the result of the students' individual thoughts, research, and self-expression.
- Whenever a student uses ideas, wording, or organization from another source, the source must be appropriately acknowledged.
- If a student is caught submitting plagiarized work, the first offense will result in a zero on the assignment, a second offense will result in a class grade of F.

Accommodations

- Valencia is committed to ensure that its programs and services are accessible to students with disabilities. The Office for Students with Disabilities (http://valenciacollege.edu/osd/) (OSD) determines reasonable and appropriate accommodations for qualified students with documented disabilities based upon the need and impact of the specific disability.
- If you require course accommodations due to a physical, emotional or learning disability, contact the instructor and provide a Notification to Instructor form by the end of the second week of class. To obtain a letter of accommodation, contact OSD at 407-582-2229.

Baycare Student Assistance Services

Valencia College strives to ensure all our students have a rewarding and successful college experience. To that purpose, Valencia students can get immediate help with issues dealing with stress, anxiety, depression, adjustment difficulties, substance abuse, time management as well as relationship problems dealing with school, home or work. BayCare Behavioral Health Student Assistance Program (http://catalog.valenciacollege.edu/studentservices/baycarestudentassistanceservices/) (SAP) services are free to all Valencia students and available 24 hours a day by calling (800) 878-5470. If needed, the counselor may refer the student to appropriate resources or to speak face-to-face with a licensed counselor.

IMPORTANT LINKS

College Catalog

The Valencia Policy Manual (http://valenciacollege.edu/generalcounsel/policy/)

DISCLAIMER STATEMENT

Changes to the course calendar may be made at my discretion Students will be notified of any course changes via the Canvas Announcements and GroupMe