Prerequisite:

Minimum grade of C in ENC1101 or ENC 1101H or IDH 1110.

Gordon Rule:

Gordon Rule course in which the student is required to demonstrate college-level writing skills through multiple assignments. Minimum grade of C required if used to satisfy Gordon Rule requirement.

Course Description:

This course is an integrated study of the main developments of the visual art forms from the 15th century to the present. World art will be integrated into the content. Social, political, economical, ecological, technological, theological, historical, and philosophical concepts and how they influenced art will be discussed.

Course Objectives:

1. Introduce students to a historical examination of art concentrating on painting, drawing, sculpture, architecture, and other visual art forms.
2. Introduce the principles of visual communication and visual literacy.
3. Examine the function of art, the perception of art, and the historical effect of religion, technology and other developments in art.
4. Evaluate art by viewing, making verbal and written comments and reactions, as well as the thought processes related to making judgments about art.

Expected Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify and appreciate the various themes and developments in the visual arts from the Early Renaissance period through the 21st century.
2. Study works of art through visual analysis.
3. Critique a work of art by applying the elements and principles of design.
4. Study the classification of art through place of origin, sequence, chronology, and historical significance.
5. Examine the relationship of art, history, and culture.
6. Develop an appreciation of the visual arts and architecture produced by different cultures.
7. Employ research and writing skills to successfully satisfy writing requirements.

This course seeks to reinforce the following Valencia Student Competencies:

- Think clearly, critically and creatively by analyzing, synthesizing, integrating and evaluating cognitive, aesthetic and visual knowledge.
- Understand, empathize and evaluate your own and others' values from individual, cultural and global perspectives.
- Communicate ideas visually and verbally. Use your listening and writing skills to analyze and critique.
- Act purposely, reflectively and responsibly by implementing effective problem solving and decision-making strategies.

Quizzes:

Students are required to complete 18 multiple choice quizzes. Every quiz will include 15 questions. You will be awarded 2 points per each correct answer. Each quiz is worth 30 points. No late quizzes will be accepted!

Essay assignments:

Students are required to complete 7 short answer assignments using Microsoft Word. Each assignment will include 2 questions (20 points each question – 40 points per assignment). Students will be awarded full credit if correct and clarifying answers are provided on all of the assigned questions. All provided answers must be based on the assigned textbook reading and must include references to the presented artworks within the chapters. Additional guidelines are presented in the modules that include essay assignments. No late assignments will be accepted!

Local Visual Culture Research:

This assignment will include a combination of field and bibliographic research to be summarized in a 4-6 page (a minimum of 2000 words) paper written in APA style. A separate handout and the assessment rubric for this assignment are provided in the module for Local Visual Culture Research. No late research papers will be accepted!

Discussions:

A successful student in online education is one who takes an active role in the learning process. You are, therefore, encouraged to participate in the discussion area to enhance your learning experience. The assessment rubric and additional guidelines are provided for each discussion in this course. The information can be found in modules that include discussions.

Attendance Policy:

Attendance during the first week of classes is determined by completion of the Introductory Discussion by the specified deadline. Students who do not complete this specific discussion (Discussion - Introductions) by the posted due date will be reported as a no-show and will be responsible for the cost of the class. Simply logging in to an online class does not count as attendance. Students must engage in an academically related activity.

Withdrawal deadline: November 20, 2020 – Any student who does not withdraw by this date will receive a letter grade for the course. I do not withdraw students. It is the student’s responsibility to exercise this option if they wish.

Academic Honesty:

Academic dishonesty is a serious offense and will not be tolerated in an academic community. Dishonesty in any form, like cheating, plagiarism, deception of effort, or unauthorized assistance may result in a failing grade for the course. Some assignments require the use of outside sources. You MUST give credit to your sources- this includes internet resources. Failure to do so is considered illegal, and is considered plagiarism.

Expected Student Conduct:

Valencia College is dedicated not only to the advancement of knowledge and learning but is concerned with the development of responsible personal and social conduct. By enrolling at Valencia College, a student assumes the responsibility for becoming familiar with and abiding by the general rules of conduct. The primary responsibility for managing the classroom environment rests with the faculty. Students who engage in any prohibited or unlawful acts that result in disruption of a class may be directed by the faculty to leave the class. Violation of any classroom or Valencia's rules may lead to disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from Valencia. Disciplinary action could include being withdrawn from class, disciplinary warning, probation, suspension, expulsion, or other appropriate and authorized actions. You will find the Student Code of Conduct in the current Valencia Student Handbook.

Students with Disabilities:

Students with disabilities who qualify for academic accommodations must provide a letter from the Office for Students with Disabilities (OSD) and discuss specific needs with the professor, preferably during the first two weeks of class. The Office for Students with Disabilities determines accommodations based on appropriate documentation of disabilities.

Learning Support Services:

Learning Support Services provides students with academic support through tutoring, library services and resources. Tutoring is offered in most academic disciplines including math, science and coursework specific to each campus. Online tutoring is offered through Smarthinking and can be accessed through Atlas. Assistance with library research can be accessed in-person or online through Atlas. Students also have access to resources such as calculators, laptops, iPads, group study rooms and quiet study rooms within the Learning Support areas. For campus specific information, please visit the college-wide Learning Support Services website at <http://valenciacollege.edu/learning-support/>.

Distance Tutoring & Technology Support:

You can easily access Valencia's free distance tutoring and tech support from a computer, laptop, or mobile device. Distance tutoring services are provided fully online via Zoom. Through this service, you will receive real-time assistance via a Valencia tutor. Online tutoring is offered in mathematics, sciences, accounting & economics, computer programming, EAP and foreign languages, and writing.

Online Learning Technology Support services are also available. Students can receive assistance with navigating: Canvas, OneDrive, Zoom, YouTube, and Microsoft Office

(Word, Excel, & PowerPoint). Support is also provided for video editing (via iMovie and MovieMaker) and converting documents from a Mac to PC. Tech support is available live (on-demand) via Zoom, by appointment, or via email. Students are encouraged
